Final Holy Week Services Set in Marion Churches

Special Programs Set for Tonight and for Maundy Thursday and Good Friday Observances.

Details of pre-Easter midweek and special weekend Holy week services have been listed by Marion pastors, with several churches marking Wednesday of Holy week with services tonight, and continuing with Maundy Thursday and Good Friday services tomorrow night and Friday. Some churches will have Saturday services. A union Good Friday service for Friday afternoon has been arranged by the Marion County Ministerial association to be held in Epworth Methodist church beginning at noon.

St. Paul's Episcopal church will have litany and address tonight, followed by confirmation instruction. Holy communion in the chapel will be Thursday at 10 a. m., and there will be communion and address at 6:30 p. m. followed by a parish potluck supper. Good Friday service will be 12 to 3 p. m., and on Saturday, baptism at 3.

At Trinity Baptist

Special services will be held tonight, Thursday and Friday nights at Trinity Baptist church in the observance of Holy week. Instead of the regular prayer service held on Wednesday night in the church parlor, a public worship service will be held in the church sanctuary at 7:30 o'clock with the pastor, Rev. J. B. Holloway, bringing a message on "The Fear of the Cross." In addition to congregational singing of hymns on the theme, a mixed quartet, composed of Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. Richard Maxim Dall, Gorman and C. M. Gorby, will sing "Lead Me To Calvary," by Kilpatrick.

Following the precedent set in other years, the Trinity congregation will observe the Lord's supper on Thursday night on the traditional date of the original Last Supper' which Christ memorialized before His trial and crucifixion. The service will be conducted in a setting of palms and candle light with a spotlight focused upon da Vinci's picture of "The Last Supper." The subject of the pastor's communion meditation will be "Fellowship In The Upper Room." Special music will be a vocal solo by Miss Betty Bowman.

A special feature of the service on Good Friday night will be a musical number, "The Crown of Thorns" by Forest, sung by the Trinity Male chorus and directed by Mrs. Eugene Moore. The sermon topic will be "Zero Hour."

Calvary Church Services

Tonight at Calvary Evangelical church, there will be a message "The Outreach of the Church" by Rev. R. W. Faulkner, pastor. Members of the pastor's class will be honored guests at this service which will close with the groups dividing into various units for prayer, then gathering together again for the singing of choruses and benediction.

Thursday night, a Candlelight Communion service will open with organ prelude, "Gethsemane." Marking this service will be the showing of colored slides and the singing of old familiar hymns of the church. Special music will be by a mixed quartet. The service will close with the Lord's supper at the chancel altar.

At St. Mary Church

Maundy Thursday services at St. Mary Catholic church will be observed with special procession of the Blessed Sacrament at 8 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. will be Holy hour. Good Friday mass of the presanctified will be at 8 a. m. meditation and sermon, 2 p. m. Way of the Cross, 7:30 p. m. Saturday at 7:30 a. m. there will be Blessing of the new fire, Easter candle and baptismal water followed by mass at 8:30.

Holy communion will be celebrated at the Maundy Thursday vesper service at Emanuel Lutheran church Thursday night, and

STOLEN CAR BURNS NEAR LARUE SCHOOL

Auto Taken from Marion Destroyed by Fire.

An automobile found burning behind the school building in LaRue Tuesday night at 10 p. m. was ascertained by the highway patrol today to belong to Harry S. Toombs of 206 Glad street, Marion.

Toombs told the highway patrol the car was stolen from the Erie firehouse drive Tuesday night between 8:30 p. m. and 9 p. m. No one was in the car at the time it was found.

The LaRue fire department was called but the car was destroyed. The highway patrol reported that the wiring of the car apparently had been tampered with.

POLIO VICTIM FLOWN TO LOS ANGELES

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, April 17—An army C-47 transport plane carrying Mrs. Eleanor Hunt, 29, former campus beauty stricken with polio 18 months ago, left Cleveland airport at 5 a. m. (EST) today, bound for Los Angeles.

On arrival there later today, Mrs. Hunt, who is paralyzed from the neck down, will be taken to the Hollywood Presbyterian hospital.

The flight was arranged by the Army Air Forces at the request of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and the Red Cross in order that the former Ohio Wesleyan university beauty could be transported speedily to the west coast for the first of a series of operations.

The plane is equipped with a respirator. Mrs. Hunt is able to remain away from a respirator only a part of the time, and breathes by conscious effect rather than by reflex.

Mrs. Hunt is being accompanied by her husband, Sidney, a Cleveland advertising man.

He explained that Dr. Harvey E. Billig of Los Angeles will perform a neurotripsy operation to increase the number of nerve endings left in her muscles, "and there are prospects of repeated operations at six-month intervals."

TRUMAN DUE TO ACT TO NIP RAIL STRIKE

By The Associated Press

A strike of about 2,500 employes of the Rock Island railroad system was scheduled to start at 6 p. m. today but a union official expected President Truman would intervene, thus postponing the walkout.

J. A. Coleman, chairman of the general grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, said in Kansas City reports "from all over the system" indicate that "all points are ready to strike." He added, however, he expected President Truman to name a fact-finding board to investigate the union's claim that the company changed the rules to evade rewards "made to trainmen by the railroad mediation board."

There were few other developments along the nation's labor front. Continuing disputes kept idle about 740,000.

FIGHT LOOMS AS UN OPENS FRANCO CASE

France Expected To Outline Charges Against Spain in Support of Poles.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 17—The United Nations security council turned today from the undecided Iranian case to the highly controversial question posed by Poland's charge that Franco Spain harbored Nazi war plotters and menaced world peace.

New support for the anti-Franco movement, indicated a warm debate when the council meets at 3 p. m.

As the delegate of a nation which is a next-door neighbor of Spain, Ambassador Henri Bonnet of France said he expected to make a "lengthy" argument which observers believed might be based partly on unofficial charges by Spanish Republican leaders exiled in Paris. The latter say that Generalissimo Francisco Franco has 450,000 troops manned threateningly along the French frontier.

Atom Work Charged

Since Poland lodged her charges last week that Spain was protecting and promoting German scientists engaged in "devising new means of warfare," unofficial sources have come forward with the assertion—stoutly denied by Spain—that these scientists are engaged in atomic research.

The first official notice of the reference to atomics was taken by the Spanish cabinet in its blanket denial of the Polish accusations. The cabinet charged the Polish proposals against Spain were part of a world-wide Communist campaign against the Franco regime.

The Polish demand for some sort of collective council action to throttle and ultimately depose Franco finds the council sharply split along new lines. Polish Delegate Oscar Lange was ready to lead off against Franco with indications of strong support of Russia, France, Mexico and probably Australia, and with the stand-by backing of the Spanish Republicans-in-exile represented by an observer, Dr. Fernando De Los Rios.

The United States, Britain and Brazil, while willing to give the charges a hearing, have maintained that relations with Franco Spain should be determined by individual nations rather than concerted council action.

Prolonged debate is indicated before a vote can be reached, and the council may defer a final decision on the Spanish issue in order to bring up the Iranian question again. Russia's demand for dismissal of the Iranian case was put over at least until Thursday when a committee of experts will give a guiding opinion on Secretary-General Trygve Lie's statement yesterday questioning the legality of keeping the Russian-Iranian question on the agenda.

Truman Urges 'European Diet' Twice Weekly

Charges Most of Us Eat Too Much; Calls Again for Help for World.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 17—President Truman said today most Americans eat too much and it might be a good idea if their food consumption was reduced to low European standards for two days a week during the world crisis.

Asked at his news conference about a proposal that Americans try living on the European ration one day a week, the President replied that he personally liked the suggestion. He added that he didn't know why they couldn't adopt the diet two days a week.

Not only do most Americans eat too much, Mr. Truman said, but they also waste enough food to prevent people in war-ravaged areas from starving.

Should Do Everything

He added that they should do everything they could to save the hungry abroad until the food situation eased.

At the same time, Mr. Truman said Herbert H. Lehman, former director-general of UNRRA, was very much mistaken in saying that the administration wasn't doing all it could to avert the world-wide famine.

The President added, however, that Lehman's heart was very much in the question of feeding Europe and that he was glad that it was.

Lehman charged the government with "faulty planning and unrealistic measures" in handling the food problem and called for a resumption of rationing here to meet relief commitments abroad. Abandonment of rationing in this country at the end of the war, Lehman said, was "a most unfortunate decision."

Other Developments

Mr. Truman's comments on food come as deal with these other developments:

1—The agriculture department disclosed the nation's meat supply is lagging to wartime ration levels and may remain there until early fall.

2—The CIO Political Action Committee echoed Lehman's proposal for a renewal of wartime food controls to help increase relief supplies.

Mr. Truman also told his news conference he would back Secretary of Agriculture Anderson if he issues a proposed order cutting the use of flour 25 per cent.

He said, in response to a question, that he had not been called to referee a dispute between Anderson and economic Stabilizer Chester Bowles over milk subsidies. He added however, that he would referee one if it came up.

The President also expressed willingness to make a personal contribution to the food shortage by turning over a calf to Anderson. He disclosed his intention after a reporter told him that he was to receive a calf this week as a gift.

The report on meat supplies was made by the agriculture department in announcing how it will divide dwindling stocks among civilians, the armed forces, and needy areas abroad during the April-June quarter.

The per capita civilian meat supply at least until July 1 is expected to be at an annual average rate of 132 pounds (carcass weight basis), compared with the 147-pound annual rate available during the first three months of the year.

Was 136 Pounds

In 1943 when wartime meat rationing was inaugurated, the average for civilian supplies was 136 pounds annually.

MacArthur Gives Blunt Reply To Russian Blast at Policies

By The Associated Press

TOKYO, April 17—General MacArthur replied to Russian criticism by bluntly telling the four-power Allied council today that consideration of his past actions in administering Japan was no part of its job.

And his military government officer asserted Russia's questioning of Allied occupation policy, whether in good faith or not . . . is a warning that success of the occupation is threatened."

MacArthur told the council in a written statement its "responsibility, being exclusively advisory and consultative, does not involve a review of action heretofore taken in the administration of Japan."

His military government officer, Brig. Gen. Courtney Whitney, said the Japanese government was complying with the purge directive "as fast as consistent with occupation policies."

MacArthur also replied to a Russian request that a new election be held if an "undesirable diet were chosen in last Wednesday's balloting. He indicated some successful candidates would be investigated further, and added:

"It is essential that the supreme commander issue no statement and avoid any action which might seem to bring pressure for or against any particular party or group."

MacArthur also declined a request for drafts of imperial rescripts, government legislative acts and orders of the ministers and ministries at least 10 days prior to issuance.

Russian charges that certain undesirable persons were not being removed from office and that democratization of Japan thus was endangered brought a brusque reply from Whitney before MacArthur statement was read.

Frost Strikes Again at Ohio

Third Bite Reaches Killing Stage in North Section; 22 at Canton.

By The Associated Press

Spring's third biting frost rolled over Ohio today, reaching killing proportions in the northern half and causing what experts decided was widespread damage to fruit trees.

The mercury plummeted to a state low of 22 degrees at Canton and to 23 at Norwalk.

Gradual rise in temperatures under sunny skies was predicted for today and tomorrow.

Huron County Farm Agent G. A. Hummon, terming today's frost "the most severe of the season," was guardedly optimistic about the damage to northern Ohio fruit trees.

"The frost probably damaged apples, peaches, grapes and cherries not previously hit," he said, "but we won't know definitely for awhile. If enough moisture is around buds and the thaw is slow damage will be lighter."

Hummon predicted a partial crop of these fruits in any case. Farm Agent F. G. Haskins of Lake county said damage to apples was spotty and to peaches heavy. Berries, sour cherries and grapes were unhurt, he declared.

Orchardists near Cleveland feared further damage to apples and peaches.

Frosts were reported at Columbus, Ashland, Canton, Circleville, Lima, Wilmington and other cities ranging from light to heavy. Most cities in northern Ohio had temperatures in the 20's, with the mercury boosted somewhat higher in southern counties.

Youngstown in northeast Ohio reported heavy but spotty frost and farmers called it a "lucky" compared to two other damaging frosts last week. The mercury touched 29 degrees. Cincinnati had light to heavy frost but apparently little further damage, except possibly to strawberries.

RED TROOPS CAPTURE VITAL RAIL STATION

Americans Menaced by Fighting in Manchurian Capital.

By The Associated Press

CHANGCHUN, April 17—Chinese Communists today captured Changchun's only railway station from an inferior force of Chinese Government troops.

That moved the fighting within 100 yards of two small groups of Americans—one of five correspondents and the other Maj. Robert B. Rigg, Chicago, assistant U. S. military attache and his staff of four.

By The Associated Press

PEIPING, April 17—The fall of Changchun, capital of civil war-torn Manchuria, to an overwhelming force of Communist troops, was forecast at Sino-American troop headquarters today as China hopefully awaited the arrival of peace-seeking General Marshall.

Latest news dispatches reported Communist forces had penetrated deep into Changchun, seized its only railway station, and disrupted communications formerly controlled by government officials.

ARREST MADE IN CHECK CASES

Suspect Seized on Tip Given Police by Restaurant Operator Victim.

Police expected to clear up a number of cases of fraudulent check passing in this vicinity, as the result of the apprehension Tuesday of a Morrow county man.

Chief of Police William E. Marks said today a charge of forgery will probably be brought against the man tomorrow, when a more complete collection of evidence from surrounding towns can be assembled against him.

The arrest was made Tuesday at 1 p. m. in Virginia Cafe on South Main street, about one hour after Charles Gallaher, manager of the Fish Sandwich Shop, had cashed a check. Confronted with the check and found with two other unpaid checks on his person, police said the suspect admitted being the man wanted by police of several counties in this vicinity for passing illegal checks.

Questioned Check

Gallaher said he suspected the check given him was illegal when he noticed the indorsement was in the same handwriting as the signature on the front. The check was made out on the National City Bank of Marion. Checking with the bank, Gallaher ascertained

Tag Day To Help Raise Funds for Cancer Campaign

Plans for a tag day solicitation in Marion Saturday to obtain funds for the Junior Chamber of Commerce cancer campaign, were made at a Junior Chamber meeting last night in the Y. M. C. A.

During Saturday Junior Chamber representatives will be on the streets to seek donations for their $25,000 drive. Richard Lister was appointed chairman of Saturday's program.

The cancer campaign in Marion is part of a nationwide plan to raise funds for control and treatment of cancer, with half the funds solicited remaining in Marion to be used to expand cancer treatment facilities in the city.

Another feature of last night's meeting was a discussion of Marion's revised school building program. Appearing before Junior Chamber members was Wilfred Scauffler of the Marion Civic Planning Group, who discussed provisions of the school building program. The Junior Chamber indorsed the school program at a previous meeting.

Nomination for director members were made with the election scheduled for the last meeting in May.

ALSO DIRECTS GUARANTEE OF FAIR PROFITS

Truman Rebuffed 171 to 144; Porter Fears Stampede of Spending for U. S.

BULLETIN

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 17 — The house today wrote into price control extension legislation a "reasonable profit" guarantee for producers, processors, distributors and retailers.

It adopted by a standing vote of 290 to 112, subject to a later roll call count, an amendment to prohibit OPA from establishing maximum prices on any commodity that do not reflect current production, processing or distributing costs, plus a "reasonable profit."

The proposal was assailed by Rep. Mouroney (D-Okla) as a "wrecking amendment."

* * *

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 17—The house voted 171 to 144 today to limit OPA's new lease on life to nine months, instead of the full year requested by President Truman. The vote is subject to a formal roll call.

Republicans, with the help of a few Democrats, took control—temporarily at least—of the price control legislation on the house floor.

The motion to limit OPA's new life span was offered by Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich.).

Earlier the house rejected by an overwhelming 178 to 31 teller vote a motion proposing to kill off legislation to continue OPA.

The first test vote on the bill to keep the agency alive a year beyond June 30 came on a motion by Rep. Rankin (D-Miss.) to strike out the enacting clause.

Rankin shouted to the house: "If you want to destroy the confidence of the American people in their government, just continue this communistic OPA."

On the teller vote, reporters counted only 32 Republicans and two Democrats for the motion.

The house then proceeded toward action on various proposals for amendments of the OPA law.

Sees Spending Sorre

Price Administrator Paul Porter said today breakdown of the present price control system could panic the nation's consumers into a "stampede" of costly spending.

"There already is a rapidly spreading belief among businessmen," Porter asserted in testimony prepared for the senate banking committee, that congress "will either wattle price control completely or take action which will compel OPA to raise prices drastically."

Should that belief spread to the consuming public, he added, "the stampede will be on."

Seek Full Year

Porter testified in the senate wing of the capitol as the house called for votes on what to do about the price agency.

The administration has been seeking a full year extension beyond June 30 with present controls left intact.

The OPA chief told the senators "if this country, with $225,000,000,000 bulging in its pockets, goes on an economic bender there won't be just a comfortable little readjustment in prices.

"A climb of 30, 40 or 50 per cent above the present level for the first year of the boom seems to me a conservative forecast."

Porter boiled down his inflation fears to terms of an "average family," now spending $2,500 a year. Twelve months of 40 per cent inflation, he said, would boost such a family's expenses to $3,450 for food, clothing, rent and other regular items.

Other Observations

Porter also made these assertions:

1. "The problem is to get production without starting up the inflation which would soon choke off the vast outpouring of goods we need."

2. "Decontrol (of) all but a few which would be both grotesquely basic commodities * * * is a job unfair and economically impossible."

3. "There are some industries which are misinforming congress and misleading the American people" about the effects of OPA control.

4. "We already have a serious black market (lumber) problem on our hands—especially in southern lumber. * * * We have broken such rackets before and we shall break this one."

5. "Admittedly there is a black market in meat. * * * But the suggestion that we lick the black mar-

TRUMAN MAPS NEW STRATEGY

Democrats Believe President May Carry Fight to People Through Lawmakers.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 17 — Signs appeared today that President Truman intended to carry his legislative fight to the people through friendly lawmakers as the CIO-PAC demanded defeat for those who opposed his program.

Capitol Hill Democrats speculated that a White House conference yesterday with half a dozen senators might have been the tip-off that the President was briefing members of congress on his objectives in the hope that they would bear down on those issues in their election campaigns.

Southern Caucus Set

Meanwhile southern Democrats who have no love for the labor-political organization arranged a caucus tonight. Leaders of the move said they expected a committee to be formed to tell Chairman Robert E. Hanhegan they wanted the Democratic national committee to support all party members, without regard to their views on legislation.

The CIO Political Action Committee said in a statement yesterday voters ought to measure the record of every candidate against a 17-point program and "oppose those who have forfeited the people's confidence by their failure to act on the people's interest."

"The coalition of poll-tax Democrats and reactionary Republicans thwarts the people's program," the statement asserted. "It places the Roosevelt legislative program which are being carried forward by President Truman in his message to the congress."

It then went to cancel wage increases by price increases, leading to a disastrous inflation. It seeks action for adequate housing for veterans as well as workers, for a public health program, for adequate social security, for job and educational opportunities. It opposes jobs for all and refuses to subscribe to the principle of full employment—even as a goal toward which we should strive.

Other Charges

"It scuttles minimum wage legislation. It denied full citizenship to the Negro people by filibustering fair employment practices and anti poll-tax cuts. It attempts to smash the power of labor by legislation and to destroy the trade unions."

Mr. Truman talked about some of the same proposals—in different language—to the senators he saw yesterday.

The group included Senators Mead of New York and Tunnell of Delaware, Radcliffe of Maryland, Kilgore of West Virginia, Guffey of Pennsylvania and Walsh of Massachusetts.

SOLON HITS BRITISH LOAN AMENDMENTS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 17 — Democratic Leader Barkley (Ky) said today congress had the choice of approving the proposed $3,750,000,000 British loan as it stood or extending no financial help to the United Kingdom this year.

As the senate prepared to start what may be a week's bitter debate, Barkley told a reporter he would fight all amendments because any congressional alteration of terms would force renegotiation of the credit agreement.

Barkley contended the trade and currency stabilization features would open to American exporters world markets that otherwise would be blockaded tightly by existing wartime sterling restrictions.

Payne's Indians Stop in Marion on Tour of State

A delegation of five men dressed as Indians and backing Albert E. Payne of Springfield, nylon distributing Republican candidate for governor, stopped in Marion today on a tour of Ohio cities. They passed out cards asking "Should we give Ohio back to the Indians?"

The card carries what the Payne committee claims is Marion's share of the national debt. The figure for the city is $60,-625,739 76 and for the county $87,871,671 72. Members of the committee said they arrived at the figures by adding Marion's bonded indebtedness to its share of the national debt.

Members of the Payne-for-governor committee included employes of the candidate's Tool and Engineering Co. in Springfield. They were Loren Haufman, manager of Payne's five farms; William Baker, tool designer; George E. Miller, truck driver; Lee Allen, tool crib operator, and W. G. Donovan, shipping clerk.

The party came to Marion from Delaware and plans to visit Bucyrus, Mansfield, Ashland and Wooster today. The group has been on the road one week, and in each town where it stops it distributes cards showing the town's share of the national debt.

Payne appeared in Marion a few weeks ago and was to deliver a speech from the courthouse steps, but the program was cancelled when his sound truck broke down enroute here. He has gained publicity through his distributing of nylons in various cities in Ohio.

ket by dropping controls sounds to be like suggesting that we avoid traffic violations by repealing our traffic regulations."

The house met two hours earlier than usual to get down to the business of voting.

Before the ayes and nays began to sound, Rep Monroney (D-Okla) commented to newsmen: "Nobody knows whether there will be any price control at all, when the voting is over."

Today's voting was concerned primarily with proposed changes rather than the bill itself.

Republicans came forward with amendments to hold down OPA's lease on life to nine months and to revise price control rules and regulations. Rep Patman (D-Tex) shouted to the house yesterday, "If these amendments pass OPA will be scuttled."

OPA Launches Probe of Lumber Racket

By The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17—The OPA announced today it had started one of the largest investigations ever undertaken by the price control agency to track down black market dealings in west coast lumber.

Noel Gray, OPA district enforcement attorney at San Francisco, said the prime objective was to increase lumber production and "to get the lumber out so that houses can be built."

The inquiry, he said, goes into the great lumber-producing northwest and has been ordered to ferret out illegal dealings from the sawmill all along the line to the purchase by retail buyers.

Gray said practices of upgrading inferior lumber, short-loading lumber trucks and wholesalers engaged in retail trade would be investigated.

"WANTED BABY" TALE REVEALED AS FICTION

By The Associated Press

PLEASANTVILLE, N. J., April 17—Miss Millie Gardner Anderson, 23, a former Wave, was in police custody today, Captain Walter H. Atkinson said, on a warrant issued by Washington, D. C., authorities charging her with abandoning an infant in a pew of St. Mary's Catholic church in that city.

Capt. Atkinson said the girl was taken into custody last night, but was permitted to remain overnight with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Keats of Pleasantville. She will be turned over to Washington police this afternoon, he added.

At the time the three-week old baby boy was found in the church about 10 days ago a letter left by the mother was found nearby. In it she said she was a Catholic, born and raised in the south, and had fallen in love with a man in the service.

She wrote that her parents objected to the marriage, because of religious differences and that she wanted a son of the man "for fear he wouldn't come back." He didn't she said.

Capt. Atkinson said today Miss Anderson was not a Catholic, was raised in Atlantic City, several miles from here, was a good student in high school and came from an excellent family. He added the girl told him the father of her child was living.

The attractive brunette was quoted by Capt. Atkinson as saying she wanted her baby back and that her grandparents, with whom she resided, wanted to make a home for him.

CHECK CASES

that the man had no account there. When he returned to the sandwich shop he told Police Captain Mackan, who was eating lunch there, about he incident. He said the man had been drinking and might still be about Marion.

Mackan obtained a police car and followed Gallaher as he went down Main street looking for the suspect in several drinking places. From the car Macken saw a man answering the description given him by Gallaher go into the Viggins Cafe. He called Gallaher and together they went into the Cafe and when Galaher identified the man he was arrested by Mackan.

Police here have obtained 15 questionable checks from local merchants in the last six weeks. They expect to hear of several more now that an arrest has been made. Police in other communities in this area have been in touch with police here concerning the case for several weeks. A check with other police departments since the arrest revealed the following cases. 7 in Mt. Vernon, 1 in Richland county, 2 in Morrow county, 12 in Mansfield and 6 in Delaware.

Used Aliases

Most of the checks were made out for sums of money varying from $36 to $46. Aliases repeatedly used were J. E. Myers, Ray Myers, J. E. Hayes, George Dix, J. E. Geiger, J. E. Eastbrook, and J. Hazen. The checks were usually made out to a fictitious individual.

Police said the suspect usually dressed as a painter or other type of workingman. He often would place large orders with stores dealing in hardware, paint and other types of materials used in building and, having established confidence in himself would induce the merchant to cash one of his checks.

HOLY LAND TENSION EASES

President Charges Admiral's Lobbying Touched Off Blast

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 17 — President Truman said today it was an admiral in Hawaii who touched off his recent blast against Navy lobbying.

The President told his news conference he did not think Secretary of the Navy Forrestal and Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, chief of naval operations, had been doing any lobbying against unification of the armed forces.

The admiral who stirred him up, he said, was in charge of the Hawaiian station.

The Chief Executive had a late afternoon appointment today with Secretary Forrestal and Admiral Nimitz, chief of naval operations, to talk over at their request the proposed army-Navy merger.

Mr. Truman said he thought the admiral in Hawaii was named Melville. Anyway, he added, "the admiral in charge there got into print in an interview which he saw, and he said it really stirred him up.

At his news conference last Thursday, the President rapped the Navy sharply for using lobbying and propaganda against a merger bill pending in congress.

Told that Senator Robertson (D-Wyo) had said the Army was lobbying vigorously as well, Mr. Truman said he didn't believe in lobbying. He believed men should go down and express their views to congressional committees on the facts and let the committees decide. That was the way things were handled, when he was running a senate committee, he said.

To a question a s to how the Navy was lobbying, Mr. Truman replied it war doing whatever the world.

Lausche Hints Drastic Anti-Gambling Action

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 17—Gov. Frank J. Lausche indicated today that he intended to take drastic action, if necessary, to stamp out gambling reported to be flourishing in the resort community of Brady Lake, Portage county.

He did not disclose what line of action he contemplated, although he reiterated an order to Liquor Director Robert M. Sohngen to remove slot machines from the premises of liquor taverns.

The governor evidenced his attitude as he announced the postponement until Friday at 11 30 a. m. of a conference with Mayor Joseph Cox of Brady Lake and Sheriff George Shields of Portage county.

At the same time Lausche said he was investigating reports that gambling had been resumed at the Pettibone club in Geauga county. The county prosecutor and sheriff, after being called in by the governor, informed him, he said, that the gambling had been stopped.

Widowerer Is Accused in Ohio Girl's Death

By The Associated Press

CANTON, O., April 17—Charles Pustay, 56-year-old operator of the rooming house in which slain Ruth Woodie lived, was charged by police Wednesday with first degree murder in the fatal beating of the 27-year-old waitress last Dec. 8.

Patrolmen Don Bole and E. W. Crawford signed the murder affidavit against Pustay shortly after his arrest. Arraigned before Municipal Judge Paul Van Nostran, the accused pleaded innocent and asked a preliminary hearing which was set for April 26.

The patrolmen declined to say what evidence led to the charge against Putsay, a widower.

WESTINGHOUSE SEEKS LOAN OF $80,000,000

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, April 17 — The Westinghouse Electric Corp., shut down 93 days by a strike of CIO workers, today announced it is negotiating an $80,000,000 loan to meet financial obligations and to put through a $58,000,000 expansion and improvement program.

Gwilym A. Price, Westinghouse president, said in his annual statement to stockholders, that the loan, effective May 1, will be for a two-year period with an option to renew for three additional years.

Declaring it is impossible to give a complete report of company business during the first quarter of 1946 because of the strike, Price estimated that "net sales billed during January, February and March average about $10,000 000 a month," compared with an average of more than $57,000,000 a month in 1945.

The statement declared that the 75,000 striking electrical workers had lost more than $42,000,000 in wages while "our company, its customers and the nation have lost $100 000 000 worth of production of badly needed electrical equipment and appliances."

The union is seeking an 18½ cent hourly wage increase and refused what the company said was a 17½ cent hourly offer.

The statement said the company's cash and marketable securities at the end of the first quarter amounted to $111,000,000, near the level at the start of the year.

Hoover Sweeper Due for Strike Tomorrow

By The Associated Press

CANTON, O., April 17—CIO United Electrical Workers today notified the Hoover Co., maker of electrical sweepers they would strike at the company's North Canton plant at 7 a. m. tomorrow.

The union represents approximately 1,700 production and maintenance workers but the strike was expected to affect about 2,000 employes as the union announced only executive staff officials, payroll clerks, guards, firemouse and supervisory employes would be admitted through picket lines.

Ralph D. Marcus, business agent for the union local, said negotiations for an 18½-cent hourly wage increase broke down when the company insisted on job evaluation before application of an increase. The union, seeking a raise, rejected this proposal extending the increase would amount to less than 18½ cents an hour for some workers.

FILIPINO SAYS 81 BEHEADED BY JAP

By The Associated Press

MANILA, April 17—A Filipino whom the Japanese used as a beast of burden today described war crimes trial the torturing and beheading Filipino men, women and children on Panay island.

The 20-year-old witness, Lt. Crimeo, testified at the trial Japanese Lt. Gen. Takeuchi, former commander on Panay, accused of having permitted deaths of 2,000 unarmed Filipinos and other atrocities by his troops.

Crimeo said he and dozens others were pressed into service to carry supplies. He said the procession was led by Japanese Lieutenant Otsuka who permitted beheaded women and children and had their bodies tossed into a ditch.

MEDICAL CARE NOW OFFERED OHIO FAMILIES

PROVIDES CASH FOR MEDICAL OR SURGICAL EXPENSES

ALSO INCLUDES HOSPITAL ROOM UP TO 90 DAYS

ENTIRE FAMILY INCLUDED It is now possible to procure hospitalization that includes cash allowance to pay the family doctor for medical treatment or the surgeon in case of an operation on any member of the family.

Private enterprise is answering the call of the Government to do something to assist families in procuring proper medical and hospital care.

90 DAYS IN HOSPITAL This new plan will allow the participating member or any member of his family covered, 90 days room and board on any one illness or accident. Each member may have a five, six, or seven dollar a day private room, according to the plan selected. Members are not limited to one or two claims per year. The full 90-day allowance is available for each disability covered.

100% EXPENSE PAID The plan pays all of the hospital charges for operating room, hypodermics, routine medicines, surgical dressings and supplies, ambulance to and from the hospital, etc. There are also liberal allowances for laboratory fees, anesthetics, X-rays, and oxygen.

There is a cash allowance for daily treatment, up to 30 treatments, for medical cases in the hospital. This benefit is for sicknesses, such as, pneumonia, typhoid fever, and cases not requiring an operation. This is a new feature in hospital protection. It's tomorrow's protection today.

In case of operations, the surgical supplement allows a specified amount for each operation. These benefits range from $5 for opening a boil to $150 for certain major operations. Accidents resulting in broken bones are considered as surgical cases and you do not have to go to a hospital to collect the allowance for surgery.

NO MEDICAL EXAMINATION No medical examination is required to procure this coverage. It can be selected on the individual or family group basis. The coverage is offered to persons between the ages of 3 months and 75 years of age, and it is not necessary to be employed. There is no bother to you if you change jobs. The benefits of this plan are paid in any hospital in the United States or Canada.

1,500,000 FAMILIES The liberal plan described above is written by the Mutual Benefit Health and Accident Association, the largest exclusive health and accident concern in the world. It already is providing security in over 1,500,000 homes in America. The company has been in business 38 years and does business in every state in the union. The company has over $40,000,000 in assets to guarantee the payment of claims.

The Maternity Benefits under this plan are payable at home or hospital and double indemnity will be paid in case of twins.

CLUB HEARS PASTOR IN HOLY WEEK TALK

Rev. Hollensen Addresses Rotrians on "A Mind To Work."

Rev. M. E. Hollensen, pastor of Emanuel Lutheran church, was a guest speaker at the weekly Rotary club luncheon Tuesday at Hotel Harding, basing his address on a Holy Week theme, "A Mind To Work."

He cited Nehemiah and the rebuilding of the temple of Babylon as an example of people with a mind to work. Character was designated as providing ability to hold out against odds and perfection and idealism as qualities which should be found in the home. A sense of humor was rated by the speaker as another essential human quality.

Placing especial emphasis on the vital importance of religion, Rev. Hollensen said Christianity is the one religion that has a Christ on the Cross, the only religion that gives a sense of accountability. As other necessary factors in a complete life Rev. Hollensen named individuality, "stick-to-itiveness" and teamwork. Teamwork, he said, means ability to "get along" with other people and that in turn, means friends.

In concluding Rev. Hollensen stressed the following alphabetical points as a Holy Week formula: C for character, H for humor, R for religion, I for individuality, S for "stick-to-itiveness" and T for teamwork.

First nominations were made for the annual Rotary club board of directors election. Further nominations will be made at the next meeting.

Wilson B. Tway reported on program details of the district Rotary conference in Tiffin May 5 and 6. Lou Marsh, a member of the club, gave a brief farewell talk. He is leaving for Winston Salem, S. C., where he will be production manager at a radio station.

Guests of the club were: Charles T. Kirk, visiting Rotarian of Findlay, D. M. Brender of Harrisburg, Pa., E. R. Dare of Columbus and Walter Anthelm fo Marion.

Mary Louise Jordan was student reporter from the Harding High school journalism classes.

President Declares He'd Like To Visit China and Japan

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 17—President Truman told his news conference today that he would like to visit both China and Japan during a tentatively planned trip to Manila this summer for the inauguration of Philippine independence.

The President said that he had no plans for a fishing trip to the Pacific coast, but that he was considering seriously visiting Manila for the Philippine celebration, July 4.

As to whether he would take that occasion to go to Japan, the President said he didn't know, asserting that much depended on his schedule at home.

* * *

The President also expressed hope the senate would pass a draft bill that works.

This was the Chief Executive's reply to a request for comment on a house measure which would extend the selective service system nine months from May 15, but bar inductions from May 15 to Oct. 15.

PROSECUTION TO REST CLINE MYSTERY CASE

By The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17—The prosecution indicated it would rest its case in the forgery and grand theft trial of Alfred L. Cline today after calling handwriting experts in efforts to prove the name of one of his wives was forged after her death.

The 56-year-old defendant whose several wives' deaths left him wealthy is accused of forgery and theft involving the estates of Mrs. Eva Delora Krebs Cline of Chicago and Mrs. Elizabeth Hunt Lewis Cline of Oakland.

Surprise witnesses testified yesterday in the state's attempt to prove Mrs. Krebs Cline was dead last year while Cline was corresponding with her relatives telling them of her ill health, and that a woman who died Nov. 29 and was cremated as Mrs. Krebs Cline was Mrs. Isabel Van Natta of San Francisco.

Archie D. Little, a Western Union Telegraph Co. agent, produced seven telegrams he said were sent from a Portland, Ore., hotel).

One, dated Nov. 29 and addressed to Mrs. Fay Kemper of Mission, Kans., a niece of Mrs. Van Natta, said: "Have given up San Francisco apartment, going to live in Long Beach. Have been married three weeks. Quite well and happy. Enjoying lovely trip. Aunt Isabel."

Kenton City Workers Ask Pay Boosts

Special to The Star

KENTON, April 17—Employes of the Kenton waterworks, street department, auditor's office, and the Safety Service director and health nurse, presented petitions to the City Council asking pay raises to allow for the increased cost of living.

Waterworks employes asked for a flat 20 per cent increase in pay while the others asked for varying hourly increases.

FOURTH PRE-EASTER SERVICE HELD TODAY

Attendance of Harding Pupils Shows Increase.

With an increased attendance, Harding High school's fourth pre-Easter service was held this morning at the Central Christian church. Students in charge of the program were Martha Brown, Ann Swink, and Douglas Duer. The attendance of 310 people showed a marked increase from 265 yesterday and about 200 Monday.

To open the program, Mrs. Virgil Curl played the organ prelude. The hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King," was sung, after which Dave Lee gave the call to worship. Following the singing of "Fairest Lord Jesus," Bernice Cosy led the responsive reading.

Pauline Oiler read a poem, and "This Is My Father's World" was sung. Ann Baldwin gave a prayer, following by a solo "The Lord's Prayer," by Pat Dearing, accompanied by Carolyn Burdell.

For a benediction, the group sang "God Be With You," and Mrs. Curl played the organ postlude.

The pre-Easter services, sponsored by the Girl Reserve and Hi-Y clubs, will be climaxed with a sunrise service at the Harding Memorial at 7:30 Easter morning. Expecting an even higher attendance, the committee has set a goal of 1,000 people. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Claire T. Crenshaw, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, and the Vernon Junior High school Boy's choir will sing. Parents and friends are invited.

QUONSET HOUSING DEMAND INCREASES

Applications Now Total 132 and Still Coming.

While Marion officials await state board of housing action on a proposal to provide veterans with Quonset-type houses on the Lincoln park site, veteran applications continue to come in to the veterans' information center.

Mrs. Eliza Young, in charge of the center, said today applications for the Quonset buildings now totaled 132 and they still were coming in.

Marion city council in a special meeting Monday night authorized Mayor Harry L. Dowler to make application to the state board of housing for a determination as to the need for veteran housing relief. Should the state board determine such a need exists in Marion, it will authorize the establishment of a Metropolitan Housing Authority to act as the legal agency in all business matters concerning the Quonset housing plan.

Lady's Stomach Was Like a Gas Factory; Meals Turned To Gas

One lady said recently that her stomach used to be like a "gas factory!" That is, when she ate a meal it seemed to turn right into gas. She was always bloated, had awful stomach gas pains, daily headaches and constant irregular bowel action. Now, however, this lady says she is FREE OF STOMACH GAS and she says the change is due to ERB-HELP. Her meals agree with her. No gas or bloat after eating. Headaches and constipation are gone. "Oh! what relief!" states this lady. "Why don't other gas and constipation sufferers get Erb-Help?"

ERB-HELP contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse Bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get ERB-HELP. Sold by all drug stores here in Marion.—Adv.

3200 Hills of corn planted 3½ ft. apart, average 3¼ stalks per hill or 9,600 plants.

1 Bushel of corn weighs 70 lbs., therefore 1 bushel of corn requires 672 ozs. of water.

1 Gal. water weighs 8⅓ lbs. and each plant requires 24 gals. of water — reduced to quarts — 192 quarts for each plant.

On the acre if you place 9600 milk bottles for each plant it would require 192 quart bottles high to raise 100 bushels to acre.

Lemon Juice Recipe Checks Rheumatic Pain Quickly

If you suffer from rheumatic, arthritis or neuritis pain, try this simple inexpensive home recipe that thousands are using. Get a package of Ko-Kets Compound, a two-week supply, today. Mix it with a quart of water, and the juice of 4 lemons. It's easy. No trouble at all and pleasant. You need only 3 tablespoonfuls two times a day. Often within 48 hours — sometimes overnight — splendid results are obtained. If the pains do not quickly leave and if you do not feel better, return the empty package and Ko-Kets will cost you nothing to try as it is sold by your druggist under an absolute money-back guarantee. Ko-Kets Compound is for sale and recommended by Henney & Cooper and drug stores everywhere. —Adv.

U. S. Protests Actions of Soviet Soldiers

By The Associated Press

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY, April 15—(Delayed) — Sources in the U. S. military mission said today Russian soldiers had been entering houses occupied by personnel of the U. S. legation in Budapest and demanding that the occupants report immediately to Soviet military authorities and remove the American flag from their doors.

The U. S. military mission has sent a note to Lt. Gen. V. P. Sviridov, acting chairman of the Allied control commission, saying that the Russian troops "appear to be acting under official orders" and requesting that instructions be issued to these troops to "avoid repetition."

Former Marion County Man Declared Dead by War Dept.

Sgt. John R. Schneider Lost in 8-29 Raid on Osaka, Japan, in 1945.

SGT. JOHN R. SCHNEIDER

Sgt. John R. (Dick) Schneider, a former resident of Marion county, who was a radio operator on a B-29 Superfortress, was recently declared dead by the War Department, having been previously reported missing since March 13, 1945, during a raid over Osaka, Japan.

Overseas only a short time, Sgt. Schneider had completed two missions over Tokyo and Nagoya for which he was given honorable mention. Stationed at Saipan, his crew was last heard from following a take-off from that island. Although the War Department was unable to furnish accurate information regarding Sgt. Schneider and his crew, a report from another plane in the formation indicated that the plane caught fire and the crew was seen to have balled out. He has not been seen or heard from since that time.

Surviving is his wife, Dixie Lou, and an infant son, John Richard II, of Covington, Ky., a daughter, Aileen, living in Dayton, O., his father, E. J. Schneider of Gahanna, O., a sister, Mrs. Guy K. Carr of Columbus, and one grandmother, Mrs. Della Boulton, formerly of Marion, now residing in Toledo.

A graduate of Pleasant Township High school, Sgt. Schneider was a musician and was associated for a number of years with Station WBNS in Columbus, and also with several local bands there. Prior to his entering the Army in April 1943, he was employed with the Frigidaire Corporation in Dayton, O.

P.-T.A. at Prospect To Install Officers

A program, installation of officers and a social hour will be held by the Prospect P-T-A, at 8 p. m. May 2, in the school auditorium. Pupils of Grades one and two under the supervision of Miss Isabel Smith and Miss Esther Click, will present a sketch, pupils of the kindergarten taught by Mrs. Ruth Young, will take part in the program and there will be demonstrations of Girl Scout activities by Troops One and Two.

Rooms of the building will be open and there will be exhibits of the work of the students. Rev. Paul Dobberstein will preside for the installation of officers and also will speak the invocation and benediction. Refreshments will be served by the social committee headed by Mrs. Harry Waxler as chairman.

A meeting of the executive board will be held April 30 at the high school. The P.-T. A. meeting was postponed from April 18 because of the observance of Holy Week.

Silk Hosiery Due in Month or Two

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 17—Silk Hosiery will begin to appear in limited quantities within the next month or two, but prices are yet to be determined, trade sources said today.

Whether the return of Japanese silk will have much effect on the overall hosiery supply will depend to a large extent on the price of raw silk and the quality of subsequent shipments.

HOME LOANS — INSURED SAVINGS

TO VETERANS and Other MARION CITIZENS Who Are Looking for a Place To Live

We want you to know that the Marion Civic Planning Group and the Board of Education want nothing to interfere with home building. On the contrary, we want the school building program to serve two purposes. 1. To make a backlog of jobs when they are needed—after the housing requirements are NOT critical. 2. To give all of Marion's youngsters better school buildings as soon as possible.

You may say, "Well then, why vote it now?" The answer is that it will take many months to get ready to do the major project if the money was voted tomorrow. We can borrow money TODAY cheaper than ever before in our history. We want to get plans drawn. We want to be ready when the time is right. We want to be ready if the Federal Government again offers public works building grants.

No, veterans and other citizens, we won't do anything to slow down the housing program. That's a promise. So you can feel free to vote "FOR" the school bond issue on May 7th.

SUPPORTING THE SCHOOL BOND ISSUE WON'T LESSEN YOUR CHANCES TO GET A HOME

Social Affairs

MRS. MILDRED BAKER of Galion and Mrs. Zantha Rank of Columbus, two of the founders of Gamma Mu chapter, Delta Theta Tau sorority, joined the members for the annual observance of founder's day, last evening at Hotel Harding. The occasion was celebrated with a dinner and program in the presidential suite where tables were decorated in a theme of green and white. Places were marked with favors of candlesticks holding green tapers.

For the program hour an original poem by Mrs. Ruth Partridge was read by Mrs. Trella Biddle and a reading, "Spike Ramsey," was given by Mrs. Joan Sheehe. In contests the awards were won by Mrs. Mylidrid Combs, Mrs. Ruth Ochs and Miss Pauline Ruhl.

During the evening a pledge service was conducted for Mrs. Margaret Morrison, Mrs. Marcella Haldeman, Mrs. Marjorie Shively, Mrs. Elizabeth Pickerel, Mrs. Joanna Turner, Miss Ruth Bonen and Miss Ada Jane Biggerstaff.

Present with the chapter founders were the following other members-at-large: Mrs. Ruth Ochs of Lima, Mrs. Margaret Lewis of Mt. Vernon, Mrs. Leora Wright and Mrs. Margaret Tracht of Galion, Mrs. Ellen Meister, Mrs. Combs, Mrs. Verna Wolgamot and Mrs. Viola Rinnert. Arrangements were in charge of a social committee composed of Mrs. Eleanore Parish, chairman, Mrs. Louise Fox, Mrs. Sheehe, Mrs. Twila Haldeman and Mrs. Betty Ruth, and the program committee included Mrs. Ruth Partridge, chairman, Mrs. Mozelle Shoemaker and Mrs. Trella Biddle.

The Study group of the Marion Lecture-Recital club met Monday night in the home of Mrs. H. T. Williams at 190 Neil avenue with Mrs. Leroy Schneider as assistant hostess. Mrs. J. C. Woods presided for business, during which Mrs. O. D. Anderson was elected assistant leader and Mrs. Oramel Green was elected secretary. Dr. Edward Ellsworth Hipsher, guest speaker, had as his subject "American Opera and Composers." A book of which he is author was suggested for a study text. Mrs. C. H. Indoe was in charge of a program and read a paper on the study topic, while music was presented by Mrs. Gerald Jennings at the piano, "Scherzo" by Griffes; Miss Dorothy Gail Stephenson, who sang "I Built a Dream One Day," Oscar Hammerstein and Sigmund Romberg, "With a Song in My Heart," Lorenz Hart and Richard Rogers, "Moonbeams," Henry Blossom and Victor Herbert; Miss Rosaline Manzo, piano group, "Le Papillon," Dennee, "Prelude Fantastique," Porter, and "Tarantelle," Dennee. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Anderson concluded with piano duo numbers, "Valse Brilliante," Mana-Zucca, and "Man of Straw," Goanados. A picnic and music program will be held May 27 at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Shroats near Green Camp.

The Junior Circle of the Child Conservation League met Monday evening with Mrs. John Pickerel on South Prospect street. Mrs. Francis Blake and Mrs. Max Sechrist were appointed to assist Mrs. Robert Vance in the preparation of the club display for Fine Arts Day. An announcement was made of the Federation party to be held May 16. A paper was given by Mrs. Robert Keller on the topic, "If Children Are Afraid," followed by a discussion by the group. Election of officers will be held at the next meeting May 6 with Mrs. Maurice Whitcum on Indiana avenue.

Members of the Advance club met Monday afternoon at the Federation Home on East Center street with Mrs. H. H. Clark as hostess. Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held April 28 in the room two doors south of the Central Fire Station on South Prospect street. All members of the club have been asked to have their contributions for Fine Arts Day at the Federation Home the morning of May 7. Mrs. Milton G. Mosea and Mrs. Kenneth B. Harris led an informal discussion in "Adult Education."

Mrs. Donald Cookston was hostess at her home in Meeker for a meeting recently of the G.N.O. club. Bridge was played with high honors going to Mrs. Harold Lill, second to Mrs. Edward Doyle and low to Mrs. Melvin Daugherty. Refreshments were served at a table decorated in keeping with Easter and centered with a bouquet of tulips and lilies and lighted with candles. Mrs. Willis Nye of 519 Windsor street will be hostess at the next meeting May 1.

Members of the Peppy Hour club met Thursday evening with Mrs. Charles Seborne on Blaine avenue. Two members received anniversary and birthday gifts from their "secret pals." High honors in cards went to Mrs. Roy Adams; second to Mrs. Seborne, and the consolation to Mrs. Cecil Rutherford. Mrs. George Clapsaddle received the lone hand award and the mystery box. Mrs. Earl Reed will entertain the club April 25.

A meeting of the Sesame club Monday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Fralich on Blaine avenue was opened with an Easter message by Mrs. C. H. Lindsey. "Where Do I Find Happiness?" was the question answered by members for the roll call. Mrs. H. L. Topliff presented a report on "Education in the United States," and the art scrap book made by Mrs. A. C. Brown was exhibited.

Songs appropriate for the Easter season were sung. Mrs. E. A. Schultz discussed "Independence for India from Their Viewpoint," and Mrs. C. W. Van Meter took the side of Great Britain in a discussion of the same topic. A pot-luck dinner will be served at 12 o'clock noon at the next meeting April 22 with Mrs. Van Meter on the Holland pike.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Frank P. Elliott of Detroit is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Guthrie of South Greenwood street. Mr. Elliott will join her here Friday for the week-end and they will be accompanied home by Mrs. Guthrie who will remain in Detroit for a visit.

Fine Arts Day May 7 Discussed By Club Board

FINAL plans for the annual community fine arts day on May 7 and closing the club season with a joint meeting of the retiring and incoming officers and board members, were made at a meeting of the executive board of the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs, Tuesday at the Federation Home.

Mrs. William C. Kimball, general chairman for the fine arts day observance outlined plans for the program to be held at the Federation Home. As in former years the exhibits and entertainment is open to the general public and there is no admission.

All exhibits and displays are to be in place when the doors open at 1 p. m. and the home will be open until 9:30 p. m. Of interest to men will be the hobby display and also the exhibit of overseas souvenir and trophies. Club and art scrapbooks are to be at the home by April 26, the committee announces. A bazaar, featuring homemade articles including needlework, food and handicraft will be held. Awards will be made in the table arrangements on the third floor, and winners of the literature contest, will be announced. Mrs. Paul Alexander of Maumee, who will judge the short story and poetry entries, will be present for the day. Tea will be served throughout the afternoon and evening.

Miss Philomen Gregg, county chairman for the poetry contest sponsored by the state department of education for pupils of the schools throughout the state, read the poems winning first honors in the county. Tentative plans were discussed for summer activities at the Federation Home.

The annual joint meeting of the two boards will be held on Wednesday, May 22 and will be a luncheon at 12 o'clock at Hotel Harding. Mrs. W. N. Harder, president, presided for the meeting which opened with patriotic singing, with Mrs. O. D. Anderson at the piano, and the pledge to the Flag.

Lecture-Recital Club Wins High Rating in State

THE Marion Lecture-Recital club was given a rating of 100 per cent for club activities of the year at the twenty-seventh annual convention of the Ohio Federation of Music clubs at Hotel Gibson in Cincinnati last Thursday and Friday. Mrs. A. G. Birch, president and official delegate of the local club to the state meeting, gave the report for the year and listed as the outstanding work the establishment here of the Community Concert association which presented three concert artists during the season.

The general theme of the convention was "The Role of Music in Reconstruction," with emphasis on American Composition, Music in Hospitals, War Service Extension, Opera, and the General Progress in Federaton Affairs. Mrs. H. K. Mouser of Marion, state chairman of Music in Hospitals, presided at a forum for that department Friday forenoon. Mrs. J. C. Woods of Marion, circulation manager for the Ohio Music Club news, gave a report, Mrs. O. D. Anderson of Marion, state traveling scrapbook chairman, had the scrapbook on display, and Mrs. LeRoy Schneider, local publicity chairman, a display of the Marion club publicity.

An announcement of a new undertaking of the state group was a Composers' laboratory to be set up for the purpose of affording experience to talented young composers of Ohio by giving readings of their works, and offering of constructive criticism, wth the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music cooperating in the project. The importance of National Music week was stressed. Mrs. Lewis Willis is chairman for the week here. Mrs. Herbert Witherspoon of New York City, member of the executive committee of the Metropolitan Opera spoke on "Opening Doors of Opera to Youth." Other personalities of the convention were Mrs. Freeman T. Eagleson of Columbus, state president, Eugene Goossens, director of the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, Robert Goldsand, of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, and Eunice Podis of Cleveland, young pianist who appeared in Marion on a Lecture-Recital club concert a few years ago.

Other Marion members attending various sessions were Mrs. W. J. Thomas, Mrs. John Lacey, Mrs. Carter Patton, Mrs. H. J. Mautz and Mrs. Warren Wise.

Alexandria, Egypt, became a naval base more than 2,000 years ago, when Alexander the Great founded it to aid in his campaign against Persia.

NOTED AT NINE. In his first public appearance as a full fledged conductor, Pierino Gamba, 9, is shown leading the Rome Symphony Orchestra in the Rome Opera House. Pierino, who directed the entire performance without a note of music before him, was declared by critics to have an extraordinary memory, and a rare sense of rhythm.

Couple Exchange Marriage Vows in Mason, Ohio

ANNOUNCEMENT is being made of the marriage of Miss Lydia Retzloff of Saginaw, Mich., and Robert D. Zachman, son of Mrs. Grace D. Zachman of Powhattan street.

The single ring ceremony was read at 1 p. m., March 31, in the Presbyterian church at Mason, O., by Rev. E. Lee Niswander, pastor. Miss Muriel Hendricks played "Ave Maria" and the wedding march. Mrs. Arthur Ruppel of Saginaw, sister of the bride, was her only attendant, and Orion Gustin was best man.

For the wedding, the church altar was decorated with flowers and palms and lighted candles.

The bride was attired in a green and black ensemble with which she wore a white feathered hat. Her flowers were gardenias.

Following the ceremony ,the couple left on a short wedding trip and have been in Marion a few days visiting the bridegroom's mother.

Miss Retzloff served for a time as a corporal in the WAC personnel department, and Mr. Zachman was a master sergeant with the Army Air Forces, at Stout Field, Indianapolis, Ind. Since his discharge, he has been employed as chief inspector for the Allis Chalmers Mfg. Co. of Milwaukee, Wis.

World Traveler Appears Before University Group

THE people and life in cities across the continent were pictured in music and art by Dr. Dudley Crafts Watson, world traveler, in the last number of the series of programs presented this season by the Marion Association of University Women, last evening at Hotel Harding.

The music of composers from east to west and north to south formed the background for the work of artists shown by Dr. Watson in connection with his talk on "Modern American Art from Manhattan to the Grand Canyon."

Mrs. T. H. Sutherland, president presented the speaker, who only recently returned from Central America where he has been on an extensive lecture tour. The program hour was preceded by a dinner.

The members will close the season with a business and social meeting on May 28 with a dinner at the home of Mrs. Fillmore Young on Mt. Vernon avenue. At this time the newly-elected officers will be installed.

Weddings

Miss Anna R. Stoner daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stoner of Waldo, was united in marriage Monday with Robert P. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Brown of Prospect. The single ring ceremony was read at 7 o'clock in the evening by Rev. J. R. Wynd, pastor of the Prospect Methodist church, in the parsonage.

The bride chose for her wedding a pastel pink colored suit with navy blue accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple was unattended.

The bride is a graduate of Waldo High school with the class of 1939. Mr. Brown graduated from Prospect High school in 1941 and is employed with the Marion Reserve Power Co. Following a brief wedding trip, the couple will be at home on North Elm street in Prospect.

Two World War II Heroes May Join Unknown Soldier

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 17—Two nameless Americans who lie overseas among the nation's 8,500 unidentified World War II dead may be selected to join the Unknown Soldier of World War I in honored glory on the banks of the Potomac.

The house originally approved the return of a single World War II unknown for ceremonial burial in Arlington national cemetery, but the senate military committee now recommends that one be chosen from the European theater and another from the Pacific to share in the solemn tribute.

Latest records of the American graves registration service list 8,853 unidentified dead among the approximately 325,000 men of the armed services who fell in the recent conflict.

From the first World war 1,643 graves, including the Arlington shrine of the Unknown Soldier, are inscribed merely "Here Lies in Honored Glory an American Soldier Known But to God."

The graves registration service has not yet worked out any plans for the selection of a World War II unknown or unknowns.

Both the house and senate versions of the proposal to enshrine the memory of World War II fighting men would share honors among all branches of the armed services, rather than confine them to the Army alone.

Daughter of Iturbi Declared Suicide

By The Associated Press

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., April 17—A revolver wound in the temple brought to an end today the strife-ridden life of Maria Iturbi, Hero, 28-year-old daughter of the concert pianist, Jose Iturbi.

She was found by her father, lying on the floor of his bedroom, her hair afire, a gun near her outstretched arm. She died two hours later in a hospital.

Iturbi, near collapse, was at her bedside. Her two daughters, center of years of court battles with her father and her former husband, remained at home with their nurse.

Det.-Sgt. Arthur H. McBain called the shooting "clearly a case of suicide."

Miss Iturbi, a slim, Latin girl then 18, was married in Bedford Hills, N. Y., in 1936 to Stephan Hero, 20, a violinist. Their two daughters are Maria Teresa, 9, and Maria Antonia, 8.

SHAREHOLDER SUES TO RECOVER MILLION

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, April 17—A shareholder's suit to recover $1,000,000 for the Bessemer Securities Co. of Youngstown, claiming that amount was drained from the company's assets by "wrongful" acts of its officers, was filed in common pleas court yesterday by Morton B. Icove, Cleveland attorney.

Icove's petition asserted Bessemer Securities sold 200 shares of stock in Cold Metal Process Co., of Youngstown, at $200 a share to the Union National Bank of Youngstown, acting as trustee for the Leon A. Beeghley fund, founded by the president of Bessemer Securities. It claimed the transaction was at $1,000,000 under the stock's value, and was carried out solely for Beeghley's personal advantage and to satisfy his personal ambitions as founder of the fund bearing his name.

Defendants in the suit are Beeghley, the company itself, the bank as trustee, and 10 other Bessemer officials and directors.

Fire Probe Launched at Catholic School

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, April 17—Eighteen burning candles, placed amid newspapers and rags, were found early today in a basement storeroom at a parochial school attached to Holy Family Catholic church.

The discovery was made by Andrew Jimdra, nephew of the church's pastor, Msgr. Wesceslaus F. Novak. Jimdra, who resides at the rectory, noticed a light in the basement.

He and the assistant pastor, Rev. Clarence A. Leiderbach, found the lighted candles and said some of them were about to ignite papers and rags in the room.

A fire department squad began an investigation.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN BUNDESEN, M.D.

Crooked Teeth

Crooked teeth not only rob a bright smile of its natural beauty, but they may even deform the face itself.

When the teeth do not meet properly, the condition is called malocclusion. There are several varieties of malocclusion, all so common that nearly everyone can think off-hand of an individual example of the various types. They follow. See if you can't easily match them up with people you know or whose pictures you have seen.

In one, the arch of the teeth is too narrow and the teeth crooked or irregular. In another, the lower jaw and teeth are too far back, so that the front upper teeth protrude or are bunched together. In still a third kind, the lower jaw and teeth are too far forward.

Early Treatment

Alertness and care on the part of parents and proper treatment begun early in life could prevent or correct most of these defects.

It is a peculiar fact that malocclusion is much more common in civilized people than in primitive tribes. For this reason it has been thought that perhaps the difference in diet and food habits between civilized and uncivilized peoples accounts for malocclusion.

There is no proof, however, that this is true, but it has led to the suggestion that chewing uncooked or partially cooked meats, fruits and vegetables will stimulate proper growth of the jaws by pressure of the chewing.

It would seem to be true that the diet of the growing child in this country contains a large amount of foods supplying sugar and starches and not enough of those which supply calcium or lime salts, and phosphorus, which are needed for building bone.

It is thought by others that the catching diseases of childhood, such as scarlet fever, measles and chickenpox may have a bad effect on the enamel of the teeth and result in poorly formed teeth that directly cause malocclusion.

Baby Teeth

One thing that parents can do to prevent crooked teeth is to give proper care to the baby teeth. If baby teeth must be pulled out before the second teeth come in the jaws may be thrown out of line and crooked teeth result. Proper care of the teeth will prevent their early loss.

There is some question as to whether thumb-sucking, lip-biting and lip-sucking may not play a part in producing malocclusion, so efforts should be made to prevent these habits.

Another question which often troubles parents is what is the best time to take the child to the dentist for treatment to correct malocclusion. It is probable that in most cases the treatment should be started as soon as the irregularities in the teeth are noted.

As a general rule, treatment for the correction of malocclusion should be well under way if not nearly completed by the time the child is twelve years old in order to obtain the best results. Parents should not neglect this important factor in the child's health.

All children should have their teeth examined by a dentist at least every six months after they reach their second birthday.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

A.M.Y.: I have been troubled for the past two months with boils. They apepar mostly on my head and back of my ears. Will you please tell me something about the cause and the treatment?

Answer: The cause of boils is lowered resistance to a type of germ commonly found in the skin, which is known as staphylococcus The germs are rubbed into the skin because of the contact of the clothes, or from dirty hands.

In the treatment of boils, several things may be done. The general resistance of the body should be built up by getting plenty of fresh air, sunshine, and outdoor exercise, as well as by eating a proper, well-balanced diet, that is, a diet containing all of the necessary food parts, vitamins and minerals. The hands and clothes should be kept clean.

In the treatment of the condition, it is also necessary that measures be taken to prevent infection of the skin around the boils. Fifty per cent alcohol may be applied over the boils several times daily.

Sometimes a vaccine made from the pus of one of the boils and given by injection is effective. A toxoid made from a staphylococcus germ and given by injection is also helpful.

Entries Are Sought for Umpire School

All veteran umpires in the Y. M. C. A. softball league have signed for the proposed umpire school to be conducted one night per week by T. H. McKenney, former president of the softball commission. Three additional applications from younger men who have not umpired before have been received.

The softball commission would like to get at least seven more novices interested before starting the school, either the last of this week or the first of next. The school will be based on the latest revision of the rules.

The commission wishes to stress that Monday, April 29 is the deadline for entry fees to be turned in for all teams intending to enter softball competition. First games are scheduled for May 6 and the commission wishes to know how many leagues to prepare for.

OSU STAR SPEAKS AT COUNTY CAGE EVENT

Ray Snyder Outlines Theories at Annual Banquet.

Ray Snyder of Xenia, captain of Ohio State university's 1945-46 basketball team, outlined his theory of basketball, illustrated with anecdotes from his own playing days, at the third annual all-county basketball banquet held at Claridon school last night.

Sponsored by the county athletic commission, the banquet is held each year at the school winning the county tournament, and has as its guests all players eligible in the county tournament. Due to scarlet fever, which has closed the school, New Bloomington was unable to be present.

Snyder described the games in which he played for Ohio State, including the national tournament at Madison Square Garden in which Ohio State placed third.

He has been signed to coach at Somerset during the coming season.

Galion Nine Invades Toledo for Two Days

Special to The Star

GALION, April 17 — The Galion High school baseball team started out in high spirits today for a two-day trip to Toledo, after winning their game Tuesday from Mansfield Tygers 1 to 0. George Treisch was on the mound and George Stoner caught.

Coach Sheffer's Galion team has won four games and lost one, that to Macomber High school of Toledo last week. The local nine has a 17-game schedule this season.

Galion will meet Macomber today and Toledo Waite Thursday. They will stay all night at a cottage near the Toledo Yacht club. The entire 14-man squad went to Toledo.

Galion travels to Ashland next Tuesday.

Train Ride to Derby at Stake at Jamaica

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 17—There'll be something like a $22,000 pay check waiting at the finish of the Wood Memorial at Jamaica Saturday, but most of the gee-gees trying for it will be more interested in a small batch of railroad tickets going to the gallopers who hurry home the quickest.

These, naturally, are for lowers on the Louisville Limited reaching Churchill Downs by May 4, and while there may be as many as 15 three-year-olds starting in the Wood, Saturday, only about a dozen will be shooting for that Kentucky Derby train ride.

DiMag, Williams, Greenberg and Feller Show Real Class

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baseball is back on the gold standard today with such pre-war glamor names as Joe DiMaggio, Bobby Feller, Ted Williams and Hank Greenberg in the headlines once again.

Mel Ott and Hal Newhouser were the only holdovers from the wartime campaigns in the select circle, dominated by ex-GI's, that delighted 226,730 fans at yesterday's eight big league openers.

The first day of the 1946 campaign, promising the beginning of a new golden era in sports, was a financial and artistic success. Attendance showed more than 100 per cent increase over 1945 and was the second highest in history.

DiMaggio, Williams, Greenberg and Ott revived the home run fever that has been running low in wartime seasons and Feller, Newhouser and Spud Chandler showed the boys some fancy pre-war chucking.

Hank Comes in Handy

The Newhouser-Greenberg team probably was the most eye-arresting of the lot. Lefty Hal spun a neat six-hitter for his first opening day win but he needed Big Hank's line drive homer to get a 2-1 decision for the world champion Detroit Tigers over Nelson Potter and the St. Louis Browns before the day's largest crowd, 52,118.

DiMaggio and Chandler also provided a one-two punch for the New York Yankees who appear to be headed back toward the heights. Jolting Joe's 400-foot clout with Tommy Henrich on base eased the ace righthander along the way to a five-hit 5-0 shutout of Philadelphia before Shibe park's largest opening day turnout, 37,472.

Williams, making his first big league appearance since 1942, thrilled President Truman and 30,372 Washington fans with a 430-foot home run, the longest seen at Griffith stadium in 15 years. Tex Hughson sprinkled 11 Senator hits along the route for a 6-3 Boston verdict over Roger Wolff.

Feller Is Tops

Feller turned in the prize pitching job, a three-hit, 1-0 blanking of Chicago but the Cleveland fireball artist needed a belly-flop catch by Bob Lemon, another ex-GI, to save the game in the sixth inning. A chilled crowd of 20,106 watched Feller win his duel with Specs Dietrich.

New York Giant power, widely advertised all spring, was very much in evidence as Manager Ott's 511th round tripper sparked the Polo grounders to an 8-4 decision over the Phillies. After Ott and Ernie Lombardi had delivered early homers, Danny Murtaugh and Ron Northey found the range on Bill Voiselle to give the Giants and the 33,693 spectators a thorough scare.

The vaunted St. Louis Cardinal pitching staff went haywire, yielding 11 hits, two wild pitches, eight walks and a hit batsman in losing to Pittsburgh, 6-4 before 14,009 payees. Starter Johnny Beazley was clouted early and often but reliefer Harry Brecheen lost the verdict to fireman Ken Heintzelman.

Reds Lose Toughie

Chicago's National league champs had to rally with four runs in the ninth to shade Cincinnati, 4-3, after Joe Beggs had held them to one hit in the first eight innings. The Reds had their customary large opening turnout, 30,699 paid.

A muffed fly by rookie outielder Gene Hermanski and a boot by shortstop Pee Wee Reese enabled Boston to score two unearned runs and a 5-3 win over Brooklyn. Boston turned out 18,261 strong to watch Billy Southworth make a successful debut as Braves' manager. Johnny Sain outlasted Hal Gregg for the pitching verdict.

BREWERS UNDERDOGS AS A.A. RACE OPENS

Wide Open Season Predicted by Sports Scribes.

By The Associated Press

The American Association opens its 45th consecutive baseball season on four fronts today with the Milwaukee Brewers seeking their fourth straight title but definitely relegated to the role of underdog.

Milwaukee, which won three pennants in a row during the World War II seasons, entertains St. Paul in inaugurating a title defense which sports writers predict will be in vain.

A poll of scribes covering the league's doings tagged the Brewers to finish no better than fifth this year—chiefly because of the return of ex-servicemen and the addition of many performers who couldn't make the post-war big leagues and a crop of exceptional rookies.

That this season is expected to be a wide-open race was indicated by the scribes' ballots. They chose five different teams as first place possibilities, but named Louisville and Indianapolis as co-favorites to grab the 1946 bunting.

Louisville, last year's Little World Series champ, opens at home against Columbus, the 1945 cellar dwellers. Indianapolis, with Paul Derringer, the former major league hurling great, on the mound, entertains Toledo. Rounding out the first day's slate, is Minneapolis at Kansas City.

League officials estimate the four opening day crowds will total more than 50,000.

Yesterday's STARS

By The Associated Press

Hank Greenberg, Tigers—Helped Hal Newhouser earn first opening day victory with fourth-inning homer against St. Louis, 2-1.

Bobby Feller, Indians—Shut out Chicago with three singles, 1-0, striking out 10 men.

Ted Williams, Red Sox—Poled longest home run seen in Washington in 15 years as Boston trimmed Senators, 6-3.

Spud Chandler, Yankees—Showed pre-war form with brilliant five-hit blanking of Philadelphia, 5-0.

Mel Ott, Giants—Started New York off on right foot with his 511th National league homer in first frame of 8-4 edge over Phillies.

Johnny Sain, Braves—Returned from Navy to beat Brooklyn, 6-3, scattering 10 blows.

Ken Heintzelman, Pirates—Took over Pittsburgh mound chores in fourth and turned back Cardinals for 6-4 relief victory.

Bob Scheffing, Cubs — Singled home tying and winning runs in ninth inning as Chicago spurted for 4-3 nod over Cincinnati.

Grand Circuit Racing Off to Slow Start

By The Associated Press

ARCADIA, Calif., April 17 — Grand Circuit harness racing held its western premiere at fashionable Santa Anita yesterday, but the result wasn't exactly what backers had expected.

A crowd of 25,000 was anticipated, but only 12,900 showed up. The $369,159 wagered during the eight races was short of the $400,000 daily needed to make the 25-day meeting a financial success. The new rolling starting gate wasn't used because, harness officials said, it had been discovered that the horses were bothered by moving shadows.

So, the starts, from a stationary gate, were spotty, as compared with thoroughbred racing standards.

Rural Diamond Season Gets Under Way Today

Four games at 3:30 p. m. today are on the bill for the county league baseball opener. Claridon at Pleasant, Caledonia at Martel, Morral at Waldo and New Bloomington at Green Camp are the tilts scheduled.

The league is divided into two sections and three rounds of play, today, April 24 and April 30 are booked. Winners of each section will meet May 6, 7 and 8 in a "Little World Series." The championship team will be presented a $10 trophy.

REDS FOLD IN NINTH AS CHICAGO EXPLODES

30,699 See Cubs Take First Game of Year 4-3.

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, O., April 17 — Chicago's Cubs still think Cincinnati's Reds are nice people.

The Reds were rough for eight innings yesterday and then they must have remembered it was the Cubs they were playing for the bottom fell out and they dropped a 4 to 3 decision. Some 30,699 customers were watching the show which marked Chicago's 22nd victory in 23 games with Cincinnati, counting last year's record.

Today Manager Bill McKechnie indicated he might pitch Johnny Vander Meer or Nate Andrews. Jolly Cholly Grimm of the Chicagos said it probably would be Hank Wyse.

The Reds were breezing along yesterday with a 3 to 0 lead. Joe Beggs, the ex-relief hurler, had allowed only one dinky scratch single and it was the ninth inning.

Stan Hack cracked out a single to right. Bill Johnson banged a double to left. Peanuts Lowery singled and that was all for Beggs. Phil Cavaretta singled, bringing in another run. Andy Pafko went out but Marvin Rickert walked. There was another out and then pinch hitting Bob Scheffing banged out a single and that was good for two runs and the ball game.

The Reds had the bases loaded with one out in their half of the ninth but pinch hitter Ray Lamanno struck out and Grady Hatton lined out to short.

Hatton couldn't be blamed too much for his out, however. He had hit three straight singles to start the ball game.

Chandler Slams Door on Mexican Renegades

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, April 17—Baseball players who jumped their American contracts to play in foreign leagues have been suspended for at least five years by Commisisoner A. B. Chandler.

"Those who did not return by opening day are out," Chandler declared as he watched the Cincinnati Reds-Chicago Cubs league opener here yesterday.

"They can't even petition for a return to American organized baseball for five years," said Chandler who had announced at a meeting in Havana, Cuba, March 10 that he would slam the door of organized baseball on all such players.

INDIAN WRESTLES LaDUE THURSDAY

Indio Yaqui, the Mexican Indian from Senora, Mexico, and Monty LaDue top the wrestling program at the Marion Armory Thursday night. It will be a double main event card with both matches going the ninety minutes or the best two out of three falls. This will be the Indian's first match in Marion in over a month but he is well remembered for his leg work, his long hair and not being able to talk English. The other main event will also be full of action for it pits Rufus Jones the colored star from New York and the former gob from Toledo, Lefty Pacer, together for the first time. A tag team match between four Marion boys, Robert Lowry, Samuel DeLong, Sonny Simon and Leon Echels will open the all star card at 8:30. Call Markert & Lewis Cigar Store for your best seats. Feller Fans 10, Gives 3 Hits As Tribe Noses White Sox 1

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, April 17—Rapid Robert Feller, ace of the Cleveland Indians' mound corps, was advanced another mile today on the road back to the major league strikeout crown and all-time pitching fame.

Feller fired his rifle pitch and curve past 10 strikeout victims yesterday as he shut out the Chicago White Sox 1 to 0 in the opening game of the 1945 season.

The Chisox rapped but three singles off Feller's offerings as a crowd of 20,106 watched Bob duplicate the score by which he defeated Chicago in a no-hit triumph on opening day of 1940.

Bill (Specs) Dietrich of the White Sox, another hurler of "no-hit" fame, rivaled Feller's pitching performance by fanning nine Indians, and it took a pair of fielding masterpieces by Cleveland outfielders to cut off Chicago scoring threats.

Bob Lemon, a wingfooted Navy veteran, skimmed the grass in the ninth inning to make a diving catch and rob Chicago's Murrell Jones of a single. Bob Kennedy, who had been speeding plateward with what appeared to be the tying run, was doubled by Lemon's toss to Tribe Manager Lou Boudreau.

George Case, who scored Cleveland's vital marker in the sixth frame, nipped the White Sox' Don Kolloway at the plate in the eighth with a perfect throw.

Rookie Rightfielder Hank Edwards was the batting star of the day with two singles and a double for one-half the Tribe's six-hit total. Case, Hayes and Les Fleming contributed Cleveland's other base hits.

Case, obtained from Washington in a trade for Jeff Heath, drew a walk to open the sixth and advanced to second on Lemon's sacrifice. Edwards delivered a line single to score Case with the only run Feller needed to gain his first 1946 victory.

Allie Reynolds, No. 2 man on the Indians "big four" pitching staff, will attempt to notch Tribe victory No. 2 today at the expense of Chicago hurler Johnny Rigney.

MIAMI ROOKIE WINS

OXFORD, O., April 17 — A Miami university freshman limited Wayne university of Detroit to one hit yesterday and defeated the visitors, 2 to 0. Pinch hitting Bill Fagenson spoiled a no-hitter for Miami's John Richards with a single in the sixth inning.

400 Expected to Attend Event at Masonic Temple

By JIM DARBY

Final selections of the players who will make up the 1946 Marion Cardinals will be presented at a baseball banquet in their honor at 6:30 p. m. April 29 at the Masonic Temple. The banquet is sponsored by the inter-club council to help launch the Ohio State league season which will open the next night with Marion host to Lima Terriers.

Baseball Commissioner A. B. "Happy" Chandler and Ohio's Governor Lausche, who will be here for the opening game, are not expected to attend the pre-opening banquet.

Banquet tickets have been distributed to the four clubs represented. Lion, Rotary, Kiwanis and Y's Men's and will be on sale at $1.50 at Markert and Lewis. Judge W. Dexter Hazen, president of the Marion Cardinals will also have tickets for distribution.

Since the number of guests is expected to reach 50, only 350 of the 400 will be sold.

Distinguished List

Invitations have been extended to Judge W. G. Bramham, president of the National Association of Minor Leagues, Al Banister, president of the Columbus Red Birds, E. C. Gilliland, president of the Toledo Mud Hens, Jack Sheehan, Chicago Cub farm manager, Bruce Dudley, president of the Louisville Colonels, Sam Breadon, president of the St. Louis Cardinals, Joe Mathes, head of the Cardinal farm system, Walter Shannen, St. Louis Cardinal scout, Bob Quinn, catcher of Marion's first pro baseball club and "Turk" Reilley, star catcher with the Marion club of the old Ohio State league.

Invitations have also been sent to Billy Southworth, Boston Braves manager, Roger Peckinpaugh, vice president of the Cleveland Indians and George M. Trautman, vice president of the Detroit Tigers.

Many May Be Tied Up

How many of the invited guests will be able to attend is an undecided question now. Several have tentatively promised to attend if the current executive muddle over national defense lists is straightened out by then.

Under provisions of the GI Bill of Rights, baseball players drafted into the service must be reinstated in the classificaton they held at the time they entered service. They must be given from 30 to 60 days tryout period before they can be released.

All baseball executives who have answered the committee have mentioned this tangle as a possible bar to their attending the local banquet. Officials here expect more definite replies within the next several days.

Rain Hampers Workouts

Rain held the Marion Cardinals down on their first working day after reporting here from the Albany, Ga., training camp. Manager Wally Schang had intended to break the boys into their Lincoln park stomping grounds immediately but the weather man said no.

Schang said he would seek indoor facilities for working out the pitchers at least as an ace in the hole against possible repeaters on Monday's rain. Given any kind of weather break he expects to have strenuous workouts on the field from now until opening day.

Several players, among them six pitchers are expected on option from the St. Louis Cardinals' class A and B camp at Lynchburg, Va. They will probably arrive the last of this week or early next week.

* * *

The Zanesville Dodgers will have a veteran of the 1944 season with them this year, according to the Zanesville Signal. He is Ralph Reimer, an infielder who played several games with the Dodgers toward the last of the season two years ago. He has just been discharged from the service.

Zanesville took advantage of Sunday's mild weather to run their players through a two-hour drill.

Several boys from Zanesville are trying out with the school now in session under Frank Wayerberg.

This is four pins below the first-place mark registered by the Milwaukee Heil Co. team March 30.

YAROSZ WINS NO. 3

By The Associated Press

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 17—Light-heavyweight Tommy Yarosz of Monaca, Pa. rode the crest of three straight postwar ring victories today after winning an easy 10-round decision over Bobby Giles of Buffalo, N. Y. before a crowd of 4,100 here last night.

ASHLAND, O., April 17—Les Burgareff of the Ashland Eagles struck out seven men yesterday as his mates collected 12 hits to defeat Muskingum college, 6 to 1.

STOCK LEADERS SOAR NEAR 15-YEAR PEAKS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 17—Additional gains were registered by a number of leading stocks in today's market but the move was hesitant as 15-year peaks were approached.

Early advances by steels, aircrafts, rails and retail stores gave the list a selective boost which failed to attract general support among pivotal motors, metals and utilities.

Dealings were fairly active.

House action to restrict price control encouraged buying sentiment. Special issues responded to reports of earnings prospects, talk of stock split ups and lifting of individual price ceilings.

Higher most of the day were Douglas Aircraft, Bethlehem, U. S. Rubber, Southern Pacific Railway, Great Northern Preferred, Montgomery Ward, Paramount, R-K-O (on divident declarations), Pure Oil, Union Carbide and Dow Chemical.

Death Claims Infant at City Hospital Today

James David Powelson, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Powelson of 295 Clinton street, died at 9 a. m. today at City hospital. He was born Monday night at the hospital to Clyde O. Powelson and Lloa Opal Morton Powelson, both natives of Marion. Surviving with the parents is a foster sister, Kay Powelson.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 3 p. m. in the Merle H. Hughes mortuary on Mt. Vernon avenue. Burial will be in Marion cemetery.

NO NEW CASES OF FEVER REPORTED

New Bloomington School Remains Closed.

New Bloomington school remained closed by one case of scarlet fever today as Marion county health nurses continued their daily visits to other exposed students.

Dr. N. Sifritt, Marion county health commissioner, reports no new cases have developed, and he said that as far as the health department was concerned the school could reopen next Monday if the disease shows no signs of spreading.

The school was closed Monday after Robert Furniss, son of New Bloomington Superintendent Paul Furniss, became ill with scarlet fever while on a sight-seeing trip to Cincinnati with a group of teachers, parents and high school seniors last week-end.

Whether or not the school will reopen next Monday will depend on securing a substitute teacher for Mr. Furniss, County Superintendent D. T Mills said today. Mr. Mills now is attempting to find someone who can teach the New Bloomington superintendent's classes, since Mr. Furniss is quarantined.

The school's temporary shutdown probably will not affect the scheduled spring closing date, Mr. Mills said, or change the commencement date from May 16.

Closing the school postponed a pre-school clinic which was scheduled to be held yesterday. No new date has been set for the examination of boys and girls who will start to school next fall, according to Dr. Sifritt. Waldo and Caledonia are scheduled to have their pre-school clinics Thursday and Friday respectively.

McELHANEY'S
AUCTION
Friday, April 19, 7 p. m.

The following items have been consigned to us for sale. These are fine furnishings and are the kind you seldom see offered for sale by auction.

Wine mohair two-piece living room suite, used very little. This suite cost $285 10 months ago and is all spring construction. I don's believe you could duplicate it at any price today. Come in and look it over anytime before the sale.

Tilt-back chair with ottoman. Bought new with above suite and cost $73.50.

Rose 9x15 rug and pad. 10 months old. Cost over $150.

Glass-top coffee table in walnut.

All of the above came out of the same room. It's good and it's beautiful.

We will also sell in this sale the finest set of twin or bunk beds I have ever seen. These beds are complete and can be used as twins or bunks. Ladder included.

A walnut eight-piece dining suite has also been consigned for sale. Very pretty and in nice condition.

In addition to the above we have the best and best looking kerosene range ever made. This is a New Perfection and cannot be told from new. Cost $120 and will be sold with a new stove guarantee.

Mr. Farmer, you know what a New Perfection is. Come in and look this one over this week before Friday's sale.

We will also sell a fine kitchen cabinet, floor lamps, bridge and table lamps. Set of dishes, several pairs of fine curtains.

Beautiful lined drapes, 12 gauge Western Field shotgun, General Electric table model radio, electric record player, baby scales, Radiant Fire gas heater.

One lot of regular type Auction Furniture. OK for furnished rooms.

Hundreds of items such as silverware, dishes, pots, pans, aluminum ware, electric and hand heaters, linens, fine lace tablecloth, etc. etc.

We will also sell an 8-3x10-5 and a 9x12 matched pair of WILTON rugs. These are the finest rugs offered for sale in Ohio this year.

Don't stand in your own light. If you need good furnishings attend this sale. We run a clean, orderly auction and everything offered for sale gets a new home. Nothing protected.

Everything sold is displayed so you can see what you are buying. You can sit down and enjoy the sale in comfort.

Mr. and Mrs. Farmer we hold most of our sales on Friday night for your convenience. We have been selling to you since 1918 and appreciate your business.

Be sure to be here on time as we have lots to sell. We are located on State street, just north of Center where the old interurban station used to be.

LOVE'S FAIR HORIZON

By ADELE GARRISON

FROM his wheel chair Dicky frowned at the nuance of irritation in Junior's voice—he has always been meticulous in his insistence upon courtesy to me from the boys and, in spite of his occasional flashes of temper, sets them a marvelous example of deferential courtesy to me.

But I was glad that his vocal reproof was mild. I wanted no more temperamental complications before the luncheon.

"Don't you think, Son," he asked, "that a little less belligerence might be advisable? After all, your mother doesn't usually interfere with your taste in neckties, and, also, today the necktie is only a pretense for getting you over here. We have something to tell you."

Junior flushed, and promptly uttered an emphatic: "Sorry, Mums. I didn't mean to be rude." But his eyes were not resentful. Instead, they were avid with excited interest, and he added a quick inquiry before I could acknowledge his apology.

"What's cooking now?" he asked.

"Your mother will tell you," Dicky said, and once more I told the story of Olga's plan to announce her betrothal to Georges at the luncheon, with the heirloom betrothal ring of the kings of Trees gleaming from her finger.

Swift Realization

It seemed to my weary mind that I had retold the tale a hundred times at least. But Junior's swift realization of the real problem facing us, as well as his boyish excitement, repaid me for the task.

"Oh! Oh!" he commented. "What a mess that will be for Mary! Noel will go bats and start smashing the china. And Rod—"

He broke off suddenly, and looked anxiously at me.

"You didn't put Rod wise, did you?" he asked.

"No, indeed," I answered. "We don't want Roderick to know a single word about it before the luncheon. Then he won't have time to brood over it. He'll be surprised, as we all are supposed to be—as we would be, if Aunt Olga hadn't warned me."

"Good scout, Aunt Olga!" he approved, as casually as if the former queen of Transvania had been a school girl of his own age. But I suppressed a smile, although I guessed that Dicky, in the background, was grinning broadly, and hastily assented.

"Yes, she is," I said, "and now you know why I sent for you. Incidentally, when you go back, tell Roderick that you had tied your craft so well that I did not ask you to change it."

"That will be a help," Junior commented, adding a bit tartly: "He threw his weight around plenty when he was delivering your message."

Avoided Comment

I carefully avoided comment on that, and instead hastened into the reason for his summons.

"I'm going to ask Aunt Olga to seat you next to Roderick," I said, "and to put your father on his other side. With both of you on the watch, you'll probably be able to handle Roderick if he gets too angry."

"I'll do my best," he said doubtfully. "Any suggestions?"

"Not a single one," I told him sadly, and turned to his father. "Have you any counsel to give him?" I asked.

"Only to keep your eyes and ears open, Son, the same as the rest of us will have to do," Dicky said. "And watch me. I may be able to give you a signal of some sort."

"I'll do that, and thank you," Junior said gratefully. "Now I suppose I'd better be getting back. When do you want us over here?"

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN BUNDENSEN, M.D.

Small Boils

Since the time of Job, and doubtless before, mankind has rated boils as among its most painful afflictions. Poor Job scraped himself with a potsherd and cursed the day he was born. The modern man fortunately, has other and better resources against this skin infection, which is known to doctors as furunculosis.

The parts of the skin most often attacked by boils are the back of the neck within the hair margin, the sweat and fat glands in the armpits, the buttocks and the forearms. Infections which penetrate deeply into the skin are called carbuncles.

Location and Severity

The treatment of furunculosis will depend on the location and severity of the infection. In the case of small boils which develop in the back of the neck, Dr. S. Watson Smith of England, suggests that the area which is affected be washed twice a day with soap and water, followed by the application of a sulphur lotion without putting any gauze covering over the area.

As soon as the boils soften he advises they be opened using a pointed match stick dipped in a mild tincture of iodine.

When many small boils develop in other parts of the body, Dr. Smith advises covering them with gentian violet morning and night for a week. After the boils are opened, he advises that a magnesium sulfate paste spread on gauze be applied and changed every four hours.

Cover Carbuncles

In the case of carbuncles he does not believe that they should be cut open. He thinks the best treatment is to cover them also with a magnesium sulfate paste and to give injections into a muscle of penicillin. A penicillin preparation instead of the magnesium sulfate paste may be applied liberally to the carbuncle.

The logic of this is plain when it is understood that in most instances boils are caused by staphylococcus germs, which are among those most readily attacked by penicillin.

Boils or carbuncles may be dangerous. Hence, it is suggested by Dr. Smith that the patient be kept at rest in bed; that he be given a good diet and preparations containing vitamins such as yeast.

Sometimes, vaccine made from staphylococcus germs may be helpful in preventing attacks of boils. One of the sulfonamide drugs, such as sulfathiazole may also be administered. He does not believe that a sulfonamide ointment should be used on boils.

After recovery from an attack of boils has occurred, it may be a good idea to give the patient some iron-containing preparation to overcome any anemia or lessening of the coloring matter in the blood which has developed.

LOVE'S FAIR HORIZON

By ADELE GARRISON

I LOOKED at my wrist watch and made a mental calculation.

"In ten minutes exactly," I told my young son.

"Okay, we'll be here," he said, as he started for the door. With his hand on the door knob, he looked back.

"There'll only be six guests, won't there?" he asked. "You, Dad, Mary, Rod and me?"

"That's right," I told him.

"Will Mary and Noel come up here and go with us, or will they travel by themselves?"

"I don't know," I answered patiently. "But I'm going to find out right away."

"Sorry! I know I'm a nuisance," he said penitently, and I realized regretfully that he had sensed the irritation I had tried to hide.

"You're anything in the world but that," I assured him warmly, with a smile. "And, now, is there any other question you wish to ask?"

"Only one," he said with a deprecatory smile at me. "As it stands now, four of us know what Olina is going to do, and two, Noel and Rod, don't. Is that right?"

Roderick Leaves

"That's right," I said, and with a hasty "Thank you; good-bye," he went out of the room. Sending a relieved look at Dicky, I went to the telephone and took down the receiver.

"Cutting your own dressing rather fine even for your quick-change ability, aren't you?" my husband asked.

"It won't matter," I said, when I had given the number of Mary's suite. "I shall be dressing in the bedroom, and you can play host out here. By the time they all get here, I shall be ready."

"You're counting on Mary's wanting our moral support in entering the torture chamber?" he queried, but I hushed him with an imperative gesture as I heard Noel's voice answering my ring.

"Noel?" I asked mechanically.

"Yes, do you want to speak to Mary?" he countered.

"Not directly," I said. "I just wanted to know whether you were going directly up to your father's apartment, or intended to stop here and go with us."

"Why, I should think we would go with you, but—wait just a minute, and I'll ask Mary."

He was back in an instant, and I guessed that Mary's answer to his query had been emphatic.

"We're going with you, if you'll let us," he said.

"You know we'd love to have you," I told him reproachfully. "Are you nearly ready?"

"A matter of minutes," he replied. "When do you want us up there?"

"About eight minutes from now," I told him. "The boys will be here then."

A Chilly Dread

"We'll be there," he said, and as I heard his voice, cheery with anticipation of the coming festivity, for his stepmother always gives marvelous luncheons and dinners, I wondered with a chilly dread how his voice would sound when the meal was over.

I voiced my fear to Dicky when he put a question as I hung up the reciever.

"How does Noel sound?" he asked. "As if he were going to be temperamental?"

"On the contrary," I said, "he was unusually cheerful. I'm only hoping—"

"That he'll be as cheerful when the coming social function is concluded?" my husband finished for me. "That, my sweet, is on the knees of the well-known gods, or, rather, on the shapely ones of our beloved niece. I can't help a queer little premonition that Mary's going to cope with the situation competently."

Dinner-Dance Held by Morral Classes

A spring garden was the decorative theme followed at a dinner-dance held by the Junior and Senior classes of Morral school at Hotel Harding Saturday night. About 30 persons attended.

Flowers on the tables, on the programs, and about the dining and ball rooms carried out the motif. The Junior class played host to the Senior class in the annual function. It was the first time a dinner-dance had been held, school authorities said; in previous years theater parties had been held.

D. T. Mills, Marion county superintendent of schools, was the main speaker. Richard Granlee of the Junior class delivered a welcoming address to the Senior class and guests. The response for the Senior class was given by Leona Leathin.

School annuals were given to the Juniors and Seniors. The class will was read by Edith Williams, class history by Marilyn Metzger, class poem by Jane Bishop, and class prophecy by Paul Wiley.

Miss Dorothy Hacker, teacher at the Morral school and Junior class advisor, was in charge of arrangements.

The Junior and Senior class group has made plans for a trip to New York City next month. They will leave May 22 and be in New York three days.

P.-T.A. VOTES AID TO SCHOOL BOND CAMPAIGN

C. L. Ulrich Named President in Annual Election.

A contribution of $25 was made to the campaign for financing the school bond issue, officers for the coming year named and a program presented at the last meeting of the year for members of the Vernon P.-T. A. Monday night in the school auditorium.

C. L. Ulrich was elected president; Mrs. H. L. Arbogast, first vice president; Cecil Gabler, second vice president; Mrs. Howard Swink, secretary; James Creager, treasurer, and Mrs. Harley Lewis, council representative.

For the program hour the pupils presented their annual spring music festival with all the choral and instrumental groups taking part. The school orchestra, directed by Homer Huffman, opened the program with a group of numbers. This was followed by selections by the Ninth grade girls chorus directed by Miss Elizabeth Edgar, numbers by the Vernon school band, a mixed chorus group of seventh and eighth grade pupils directed by Miss Betty Winland, Ninth grade boys' chorus directed by William Dowler, and special group numbers by pupils of the eighth grade who gave Irish selections and folk dances under the direction of Mrs. Ferne West.

It was announced that the newly-elected officers would be guests of the unit at the annual council dinner to be held May 9 at the First Reformed church. As in former years all newly-elected officers of the P.-T. A. units will be installed at this time. Books purchased for the school's memorial book shelf were on display during the evening.

During the business session plans were completed for entertaining the school staff at a luncheon May 29 with room mothers as acting hostesses and a party for the ninth grade pupils on May 17. Following the program hour refreshments were served with Mrs. C. R. Pennisten, retiring president and Mrs. Charles Dengler, presiding. Arrangements were in charge of the social committee of which Mrs. Robert Graham is chairman.

BLOODY ROLE LAID TO NAZIS

War Court Pictures Rosenberg as Chief of Brutal Plan During War.

By The Associated Press

NUERNBERG, April 17—Alfred Rosenberg, hitherto known as the philosopher of the Nazi party, was depicted by prosecutors before the international military tribunal today as the chief of a bloody administration which sent millions of Russians to death or slave labor.

Under cross-examination by U. S. Prosecutor Thomas J. Dodd and Russian Prosecutor R. A. Rudenko, Rosenberg acknowledged that he had ordered the conscription for slave labor of hundreds of thousands of eastern Europeans and that executives of his ministry were active directors of the extermination of eastern European Jews.

Files Are Bloody

The prosecutors presented document after document taken from Rosenberg's files which added to the story of butchery of Jews—10,000 in two days in the city of Minsk alone, the prosecution said. Rosenberg blamed his subordinates, including Gauleiter Erich Koch.

Rosenberg acknowledged that "terrible excesses" had been committed in carrying out the program of slave labor conscription, but he sought to justify himself with the assertion that "I always tried to alleviate the worst conditions."

Under cross - examination by Dodd, the Nazi philosopher not only admitted conscripting adults but said he had approved a program of carrying off Russian and Baltic children to Germany "in a process designed to destroy the biological potentiality of these people."

CRAWFORD CO. MAN KILLED IN JAPAN

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, April 17—Frank Snell, route 1 New Washington, has received notice of the death of his son, T/Sgt. John A. Snell, 23, who died of injuries received in a vehicle accident in Japan, April 8. The message was received in a telegram from the adjutant general's office.

Sgt. Snell entered the army in October, 1945, and served on Luzon with infantry forces before being transferred to patrol duty on an island near Luzon. A graduate of New Washington High school he played on the basketball, baseball and track teams.

Surviving with the father are two brothers, Joseph and Robert, and two sisters, Anna and Bertha, all of New Washington. His grandmother, Mrs. Martha Wurm of New Washington, who has lost three grandsons in military service, also survives.

Truman Names New Ambassador to Iran

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 17—President Truman today announced the appointment of George V. Allen of Maryland as ambassador to Iran.

He also told his news conference he was naming Edwin F. Stanton of California to be ambassador to Siam.

Allen will go to his post immediately.

At the same time, Mr. Truman said he is not considering anybody for appointment to the diplomatic post at Rome, that he was satisfied with the man he had.

Alexander Kirk is now at the embassy in Rome.

Allen, the President said with a smile, is in the near East section of the state department, and is not the George Allen, former presidential adviser, who is now a director of the RFC.

Final Holy Week Services Set in Marion Churches

Special Programs Set for Tonight and for Maundy Thursday and Good Friday Observances.

Details of pre-Easter midweek and special weekend Holy week services have been listed by Marion pastors, with several churches marking Wednesday of Holy week with services tonight, and continuing with Maundy Thursday and Good Friday services tomorrow night and Friday. Some churches will have Saturday services. A union Good Friday service for Friday afternoon has been arranged by the Marion County Ministerial association to be held in Epworth Methodist church beginning at noon.

St. Paul's Episcopal church will have litany and address tonight, followed by confirmation instruction. Holy communion in the chapel will be Thursday at 10 a. m., and there will be communion and address at 6:30 p. m. followed by a parish potluck supper. Good Friday service will be 12 to 3 p. m., and on Saturday, baptism at 3.

At Trinity Baptist

Special services will be held tonight, Thursday and Friday nights at Trinity Baptist church in the observance of Holy week. Instead of the regular prayer service held on Wednesday night in the church parlor, a public worship service will be held in the church sanctuary at 7:30 o'clock, with the pastor, Rev. J. B Holloway, bringing a message on "The Fear of the Cross." In addition to congregational singing of hymns on the theme, a mixed quartet, composed of Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. Richard Maxim, Dail Gorman and C. M. Gorby, will sing "Lead Me To Calvary," by Kilpatrick.

Following the precedent set in other years, the Trinity congregation will observe the Lord's supper on Thursday night on the traditional date of the original "Last Supper" which Christ memorialized before His trial and crucifixion. The service will be conducted in a setting of palms and candle light, with a spotlight focused upon da Vinci's picture of "The Last Supper." The subject of the pastor's communion meditation will be "Fellowship In The Upper Room." Special music will be a vocal solo by Miss Betty Bowman.

A special feature of the service on Good Friday night will be a musical number, "The Crown of Thorns" by Forest, sung by the Trinity Male chorus and directed by Mrs. Eugene Moore. The sermon topic will be "Zero Hour."

Calvary Church Services

Tonight at Calvary Evangelical church, there will be a message, "The Outreach of the Church" by Rev. R. W. Faulkner, pastor. Members of the pastor's class will be honored guests at this service which will close with the groups dividing into various units for prayer, then gathering together again for the singing of choruses and benediction.

Thursday night, a Candlelight Communion service will open with organ prelude, "Gethsemane." Marking this service will be the showing of colored slides and the singing of old familiar hymns of the church. Special music will be by a mixed quartet. The service will close with the Lord's supper at the church altar.

At St. Mary Church

Maundy Thursday services at St. Mary Catholic church will be observed with special procession of the Blessed Sacrament at 8 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. will be Holy hour. Good Friday mass of the presanctified will be at 8 a. m.; meditation and sermon, 2 p. m.; Way of the Cross, 7:30 p. m. Saturday at 7:30 a. m. there will be Blessing of the new fire, Easter candle, and baptismal water followed by mass at 8:30.

Holy communion will be celebrated at the Maundy Thursday vesper service at Emanuel Lutheran church Thursday night, and

STOLEN CAR BURNS NEAR LARUE SCHOOL

Auto Taken from Marion Destroyed by Fire.

An automobile found burning behind the school building in LaRue Tuesday night at 10 p. m. was ascertained by the highway patrol today to belong to Harry S. Toombs of 206 Glad street, Marion.

Toombs told the highway patrol the car was stolen from the Erie freighthouse drive Tuesday night between 8:30 p. m. and 9 p. m. No one was in the car at the time it was found.

The LaRue fire department was called but the car was destroyed. The highway patrol reported that the wiring of the car apparently had been tampered with.

POLIO VICTIM FLOWN TO LOS ANGELES

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, April 17—An army C-47 transport plane carrying Mrs. Eleanor Hunt, 29, former campus beauty stricken with polio 18 months ago, left Cleveland airport at 5 a. m. (EST) today, bound for Los Angeles.

On arrival there later today, Mrs. Hunt, who is paralyzed from the neck down, will be taken to the Hollywood Presbyterian hospital.

The flight was arranged by the Army Air Forces at the request of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and the Red Cross in order that the former Ohio Wesleyan university beauty could be transported speedily to the west coast for the first of a series of operations.

The plane is equipped with a respirator. Mrs. Hunt is able to remain away from a respirator only a part of the time, and breathes by conscious effect rather than by reflex.

Mrs. Hunt is being accompanied by her husband, Sidney, a Cleveland advertising man.

He explained that Dr. Harvey E. Billig of Los Angeles will perform a neurotripsy operation to increase the number of nerve endings left in her muscles, "and there are prospects of repeated operations at six-month intervals."

TRUMAN DUE TO ACT TO NIP RAIL STRIKE

By The Associated Press

A strike of about 2,500 employes of the Rock Island railroad system was scheduled to start at 6 p. m. today but a union official expected President Truman would intervene, thus postponing the walkout.

J. A. Coleman, chairman of the general grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, said in Kansas City reports "from all over the system" indicate that "all points are ready to strike." He added, however, he expected President Truman to name a fact-finding board to investigate the union's claim that the company changed the rules to evade rewards "made to trainmen by the railroad mediation board."

There were few other developments along the nation's labor front. Continuing disputes kept idle about 740,000.

FIGHT LOOMS AS UN OPENS FRANCO CASE

France Expected To Outline Charges Against Spain in Support of Poles.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 17—The United Nations security council turned today from the undecided Iranian case to the highly controversial question posed by Poland's charge that Franco Spain harbored Nazi war plotters and menaced world peace.

New support for the anti-Franco movement, indicated a warm debate when the council meets at 3 p. m.

As the delegate of a nation which is a nextdoor neighbor of Spain, Ambassador Henri Bonnet of France said he expected to make a "lengthy" argument which observers believed might be based partly on unofficial charges by Spanish Republican leaders exiled in Paris. The latter say that Generalissimo Francisco Franco has 450,000 troops manned threateningly along the French frontier.

Atom Work Charged

Since Poland lodged her charges last week that Spain was protecting and promoting German scientists engaged in "devising new means of warfare," unofficial sources have come forward with the assertion—stoutly denied by Spain—that these scientists are engaged in atomic research.

The first official notice of the reference to atomics was taken by the Spanish cabinet in its blanket denial of the Polish accusations. The cabinet charged the Polish proposals against Spain were part of a world-wide Communist campaign against the Franco regime.

The Polish demand for some sort of collective council action to throttle and ultimately depose Franco finds the council sharply split along new lines. Polish Delegate Oscar Lange was ready to lead off against Franco with indications of strong support of Russia, France, Mexico and probably Australia, and with the stand-by backing of the Spanish Republicans-in-exile represented by an observer, Dr. Fernando De Los Rios.

The United States, Britain and Brazil, while willing to give the charges a hearing, have maintained that relations with Franco Spain should be determined by individual nations rather than concerted council action.

Prolonged debate is indicated before a vote can be reached, and the council may defer a final decision on the Spanish issue in order to bring up the Iranian question again. Russia's demand for dismissal of the Iranian case was put over at least until Thursday, when a committee of experts will give a guiding opinion on Secretary-General Trygve Lie's statement yesterday questioning the legality of keeping the Russian-Iranian question on the agenda.

New UN Chairman Former Baby Doctor

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 17—Dr. Hafez Afifi Pasha, 57-year-old Egyptian, took over chairmanship of the United Nations security council today. He is a former baby doctor who became a diplomat and banker.

The new chairman succeeds Dr. Quo Tai-chi of China.

Under council rules, the chairmanship is held for one month by each delegate in the English alphabetical order of the countries on the council.

Truman Urges 'European Diet' Twice Weekly

Charges Most of Us Eat Too Much; Calls Again for Help for World.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 17—President Truman said today most Americans eat too much and it might be a good idea if their food consumption was reduced to low European standards for two days a week during the world crisis.

Asked at his news conference about a proposal that Americans try living on the European ration one day a week, the President replied that he personally liked the suggestion. He added that he didn't know why they couldn't adopt the diet two days a week.

Not only do most Americans eat too much, Mr. Truman said, but they also waste enough food to prevent people in war ravaged areas from starving.

Should Do Everything

He added that they should do everything they could to save the hungry abroad until the food situation eased.

At the same time, Mr. Truman said Herbert H. Lehman, former director-general of UNRRA, was very much mistaken in saying that the administration wasn't doing all it could to avert the worldwide famine.

The President added, however, that Lehman's heart was very much in the question of feeding Europe and that he was glad that it was.

Lehman charged the government with "faulty planning and unrealistic measures" in handling the food problem and called for a resumption of rationing here to meet relief commitments abroad. Abandonment of rationing in this country at the end of the war, Lehman said, was "a most unfortunate decision."

Other Developments

Mr. Truman's comments on food coincided with these other developments:

1—The agriculture department disclosed the nation's meat supply is sagging to wartime ration levels and may remain there until early fall.

2—The CIO Political Action Commitee echoed Lehman's proposal for a renewal of wartime food controls to help increase relief supplies.

Mr. Truman also told his news conference he would back Secretary of Agriculture Anderson if he issues a proposed order cutting the use of flour 25 per cent.

He said, in response to a question, that he had not been called to referee a dispute between Anderson and economic Stabilizer Chester Bowles over milk subsidies. He added, however, that he would referee one if it came up.

The President also expressed willingness to make a personal contribution to the food shortage by turning over a calf to Anderson. He disclosed his intention after a reporter told him that he was to receive a calf this week as a gift.

The report on meat supplies was made by the agriculture department in announcing how it will divide dwindling stocks among civilians, the armed forces, and needy areas abroad during the April-June quarter.

The per capita civilian meat supply at least until July 1 is expected to be at an annual average rate of 132 pounds (carcass weight basis), compared with the 147-pound annual rate available during the first three months of the year.

Was 136 Pounds

In 1943 when wartime meat rationing was inaugurated, the average for civilian suplies was 136 pounds annually.

MacArthur Gives Blunt Reply To Russian Blast at Policies

By The Associated Press

TOKYO, April 17—General MacArthur replied to Russian criticism by bluntly telling the four-power Allied council today that consideration of his past actions in administering Japan was no part of its job.

And his military government officer asserted Russia's questioning of Allied occupation policy, whether in good faith or not . . . is a warning that success of the occupation is threatened."

MacArthur told the council in a written statement its "responsibility, being exclusively advisory and consultative, does not involve a review of action heretofore taken in the administration of Japan."

His military government officer, Brig. Gen. Courtney Whitney, said the Japanese government was complying with the purge directive "as fast as consistent with occupation policies."

MacArthur also replied to a Russian request that a new election be held if an "undesirable diet were chosen in last Wednesday's balloting. He indicated some successful candidates would be investigated further, and added:

"It is essential that the supreme commander issue no statement and avoid any action which might seem to bring pressure for or against any particular party or group."

MacArthur also declined a request for drafts of imperial rescripts, government legislative acts and orders of the ministers and ministries at least 10 days prior to issuance.

Russian charges that certain undesirable persons were not being removed from office and that democratization of Japan thus was endangered brought a brusque reply from Whitney before MacArthur statement was read.

Frost Strikes Again at Ohio

Third Bite Reaches Killing Stage in North Section; 22 at Canton.

By The Associated Press

Sprink's third biting frost settled over Ohio today, reaching killing proportions in the northern half and causing what experts decided was widespread damage to fruit trees.

The mercury plummeted to a state low of 22 degrees at Canton and to 23 at Norwalk.

Gradual rise in temperatures under sunny skies was predicted for today and tomorrow.

Huron County Farm Agent G. A. Hummon, terming today's frost "the most severe of the season," was guardedly optimistic about the damage to northern Ohio fruit trees.

"The frost probably damaged apples, peaches, grapes and cherries not previously hit," he said, "but we won't know definitely for awhile. If enough moisture is around buds and the thaw is slow, damage will be lighter."

Hummon predicted a partial crop of these fruits in any case. Farm Agent F. G. Haskins of Lake county said damage to apples was spotty and to peaches heavy. Berries, sour cherries and grapes were unhurt, he declared.

Orchardists near Cleveland feared further damage to apples and peaches.

Frosts were reported at Columbus, Ashland, Canton, Circleville, Lima, Wilmington and other cities, ranging from light to heavy. Most cities in northern Ohio had temperatures in the 20's, with the mercury boosted somewhat higher in southern counties.

Youngstown in northeast Ohio reported heavy but spotty frost and farmers called it a "sissy" compared to two other damaging frosts last week. The mercury touched 29 degrees. Cincinnati had light to heavy frost but apparently little further damage, except possibly to strawberries.

RED TROOPS CAPTURE VITAL RAIL STATION

Americans Menaced by Fighting in Manchurian Capital.

By The Associated Press

CHANGCHUN, April 17—Chinese Communists today captured Changchun's only railway station from an inferior force of Chinese Government troops.

That moved the fighting within 100 yards of two small groups of Americans—one of five correspondents and the other Maj. Robert E. Rigg, Chicago, assistant U. S. military attache and his staff of four.

By The Associated Press

PEIPING, April 17—The fall of Changchun, capital of civil war-torn Manchuria, to an overwhelming force of Communist troops, was forecast at Sino-American troop headquarters today as China hopefully awaited the arrival of peace-seeking General Marshall.

Latest news dispatches reported Communist forces had penetrated deep into Changchun, seized its only railway station, and disrupted communications formerly controlled by government officials.

ALSO DIRECTS GUARANTEE OF FAIR PROFITS

Truman Rebuffed 171 to 144; Porter Fears Stampede of Spending for U. S.

BULLETIN

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 17 — The house today wrote into price control extension legislation a "reasonable profit" guarantee for producers, processors, distributers and retailers.

It adopted by a standing vote of 200 to 112, subject to a later roll call count, an amendment to prohibit OPA from establishing maximum prices on any commodity that do not reflect current production, processing or distributing costs, plus a "reasonable profit."

* * *

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 17—The house voted 171 to 144 today to limit OPA's new lease on life to nine months, instead of the full year requested by President Truman. The vote is subject to a formal roll call.

Republicans, with the help of a few Democrats, took control—temporarily at least—of the price control legislation on the house floor.

The motion to limit OPA's new life span was offered by Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich.)

Earlier the house rejected by an overwhelming 178 to 34 teller vote a motion proposing to kill off legislation to continue OPA.

The first test vote on the bill to keep the agency alive a year beyond June 30 came on a motion by Rep. Rankin (D-Miss) to strike out the enacting clause.

Rankin shouted to the house: "If you want to destroy the confidence of the American people in their government, just continue this communistic OPA."

On the teller vote, reporters counted only 32 Republicans and two Democrats for the motion.

The house then proceeded toward action on various proposals for amendments of the OPA law.

Sees Spending Spree

Price Administrator Paul Porter said today breakdown of the present price control system could panic the nation's consumers into a "stampede" of costly spending.

There already is a rapidly spreading belief among businessmen, Porter asserted in testimony prepared for the senate banking committee, that congress "will either scuttle price control completely or take action which will compel OPA to raise prices drastically."

Should that belief spread to the consuming public, he added, "the stampede will be on."

Seek Full Year

Porter testified in the senate wing of the capitol as the house called for votes on what to do about the price agency.

The administration has been seeking a full year extension beyond June 30 with present controls left intact.

The OPA chief told the senators "If this country, with $225,000,000,000 bulging in its pockets, goes on an economic bender there won't be just a comfortable little readjustment in prices.

"A climb of 30, 40 or 50 per cent above the present level for the first year of the boom seems to me a conservative forecast."

Porter boiled down his inflation fears to terms of an "average family," now spending $2,500 a year. Twelve months of 40 per cent inflation, he said, would boost such a family's expenses to $3,450 for food, clothing, rent and other regular items.

Other Observations

Porter also made these assertions:

1. "The problem is to get production without starting up the inflation which would soon choke off the vast outpouring of goods we need."

2. "Decontrol (of) all but a few which would be both grotesquely basic commodities * * * is a job unfair and economically impossible."

3. "There are some industries which are misinforming congress and misleading the American people" about the effects of OPA control.

4. "We already have a serious black market (lumber) problem on our hands—especially in southern lumber. * * * We have broken such rackets before and we shall break this one."

5. "Admittedly there is a black market in meat. * * * But the suggestion that we lick the black mar-

ARREST MADE IN CHECK CASES

Suspect Seized on Tip Given Police by Restaurant Operator Victim.

Police expected to clear up a number of cases of fraudulent check passing in this vicinity, as the result of the apprehension Tuesday of a Morrow county man.

Chief of Police William E. Marks said today a charge of forgery will probably be brought against the man tomorrow, when a more complete collection of evidence from surrounding towns can be assembled against him.

The arrest was made Tuesday at 1 p. m. in Viggins Cafe on South Main street, about one hour after Charles Gallaher, manager of the Fish Sandwich Shop, had cashed a check. Confronted with the check and found with two other unpassed checks on his person, police said the suspect admitted being the man wanted by police of several counties in this vicinity for passing illegal checks.

Questioned Check

Gallaher said he suspected the check given him was illegal when he noticed the indorsement was in the same handwriting as the signature on the front. The check was made out on the National City Bank of Marion. Checking with the bank, Gallaher ascertained

Tag Day To Help Raise Funds for Cancer Campaign

Plans for a tag day solicitation in Marion Saturday to obtain funds for the Junior Chamber of Commerce cancer campaign, were made at a Junior Chamber meeting last night in the Y. M. C. A.

During Saturday Junior Chamber representives will be on the streets to seek donations for their $25,000 drive. Richard Lister was appointed chairman of Saturday's program.

The cancer campaign in Marion is part of a nationwide plan to raise funds for control and treatment of cancer, with half the funds solicited remaining in Marion to be used to expand cancer treatment facilities in the city.

Another feature of last night's meeting was a discussion of Marion's revised school building program. Appearing before Junior Chamber members was Wilfred Schaffner of the Marion Civic Planning Group, who discussed provisions of the school building program. The Junior Chamber indorsed the school program at a previous meeting.

Nomination for director members were made with the election scheduled for the last meeting in May.

2,954 SAIL FOR U. S.

By The Associated Press

FRANKFURT, Germany, April 17 — A total of 3,954 American soldiers sailed for home and discharge in the last 24 hours. The 46th Armored Medical battalion and 1,207 unattached men left Le Havre. From Bremerhaven these units sailed: 3,409th and 3,422nd Ordnance Medium Artillery Maintenance Companies; 89th Q. M. Railhead Co.; 3,856th, 3,858th, 3,325th, 3,393rd and 3,593rd Q. M. Truck Companies and the 59th Field Hospital.

BOARD MAKES PRIMARY PLANS

Expect Vote Registration To Fall Slightly Below 17,300 in City.

With the primary election just three weeks away, the Marion county board of elections is busy getting its records ready for what officials believe may be the biggest primary election since 1940.

Workers at the election board office are getting their precinct books in order and figuring an official count on the total registration. Estimated count at the close of the registration deadline April 8 was 17,300. The official count is expected to be slightly under that figure, according to Mrs. Nora Fetter, deputy clerk of the election board, due to deceased persons or persons who have moved away. Cards of such persons now are being pulled from the files.

Ballot supplies are now coming in, the election board reports, and are being made ready for distribution to local presiding judges. Presiding judges from the county will pick up their supplies on May 4 and presiding judges from the city on May 6. Local voting officials will be given instructions on voting procedure when they pick up their supplies, Mrs. Fetter said. The election board is expected to meet sometime this week or next to make final arrangements for the primaries.

Beginning next Monday, persons who are sick or disabled may cast absentee ballots, but first they must file a written request with the election board. Absentee service men's ballots cast now total 16 and civilian absentee ballots 15, the election board reports.

30 DAIRYMEN IN TEST GROUP

Owners of 800 Dairy Cows Join in Cooperative Movement Here.

A dairy herd improvement program, which will provide butterfat tests for more than 800 dairy cows in Marion county, is expected to open in Marion county within the near future.

At a meeting last night in the office of County Agriculture Agent Arthur H. Smith, director of the Marion Dairy Service Cooperative reported about 30 dairymen had signed contracts for the dairy herd improvement plan enough to open the program in Marion county. Director reported, however, they still needed additional members for the owner-sampler program before it could be started.

The dairy herd improvement plan calls for butterfat content tests for each cow to be made personally by a dairy tester. The problem of employing a dairy tester was brought up at last night's meeting, although no action was taken.

The second phase of the cooperative's program, the owner-sampler plan, would permit dairymen to take his own milk samples and have them sent to the tester who will make the tests.

Considerable interest was reported in the proposed artificial breeding plan. Directors believe this plan would require at least 1,500 cows to make it practical and if enough dairymen show interest in such a program the cooperative expects to include it in its schedule.

Contracts for signing up with the cooperative may be obtained from the county agent's office or from directors of the organization.

Scheduling of summer replacements for network shows, proceeding at a slower pace than usual, has gained only a few additions in the period of a week. One factor is that some of the regulars may staff off longer in this first peace-time summer in five years, waiting a return until after the end of the daylight savings period the last Sunday in September.

Added to the annnouncement that Fred Waring would replace Fibber and Molly of NBC on June 19 for 15 weeks—a rather long vacation—is that Wayne King and his orchestra may have been signed to take the Moore-Durante time on CBS from June 14 to September 8, inclusive.

Tommy Riggs and his voice-created Betty Lou, absent because of military service, are expected to comprise another summer feature. A deal in the making would have him go in for Ginny Simms on CBS from May 10. In anticipation, he has been scheduled for two guest appearances April 26 and May 3.

The Man Called X, Herbert Marshall in the lead, also is in for a revival. It has been proposed for the Bob Hope spot. On MBS the Quick as a Flash Quiz is to begin its vacation at the end of May, with the Abbott Mysteries, a Mr. and Mrs. detective series, to be brought back as the replacement. On ABC the Hall of Fame plans to follow its usual summer schedule of light music provided by the regular conductor, Paul Whiteman.

DIES IN OHIO PLUNGE

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, April 17—A 25-year-old woman plunged to her death from the 14th floor of the Cleveland Terminal tower early today. She was identified at city morgue as Alta Jean Bailey, by her father Jesse S. Bailey, a city fireman, who said she had been despondent over the death of her mother two years ago.

Mackenzie Urges Big Three Chiefs To Talk It Over

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

If ever there was a time when a conference of the Big Three chiefs of state was badly needed, it would seem to be right now.

In recording this thought your correspondent is well aware that heretofore the Big Three haven't felt it necessary to hold another parley but have been disposed to work things out through the UN. However that naturally was based on the assumption that the UN would function—which still remains to be demonstrated.

DewittMackenzie

Suspicions and hard words—spoken without a smile—are flying willy-nilly between the Russians on the one side and the western Allies on the other. Why all this mistrust, which has been mounting each passing day? Well, that one isn't hard to answer.

It's because the Big Three haven't tabled their international policies for one another to see. With a world-wide realignment of spheres of influence going forward, each of the Big Three obviously is vitally concerned. And there must be uneasiness and even fears on the part of each until the programs of the others are known.

Need Clear Policies

The moment has arrived when policies must be stated clearly. That won't be done at this juncture in open meetings of the UN. The glorious day of open diplomacy is still to come. The quickest and easiest way of making the exchange of confessions, or so it strikes me, would be for President Truman, Generalissimo Stalin and Prime Minister Attlee to sit down together and talk turkey until they had everything off their chests. Then maybe the United Nations could get down to cases, and the projected meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers to draw up the European peace treaties might fulfill its purpose instead of ramming its head against another stone wall.

The current imbroglio in the security council over the Russo-Iranian issue has given us fair warning of the dangerous difference of viewpoints. Russia believes she sees mistrust in the Anglo-American desire to keep the case on the books until all Red troops have been withdrawn from Iran according to agreement. I find no evidence that the Western Allies doubt Russia's word in this matter, but that's the way Moscow looks at it.

Moscow Reaction

We get the reaction to this suspicion in a Moscow broadcast. This quotes the Russian magazine New Times as stating that the greatest danger now facing the United Nations "arises from efforts of certain definite circles to make the UN an instrument for the domination of some countries over others, to turn it into a weapon of the Anglo-American bloc, counterposed both to those nations of the eastern Europe and the majority of mankind who inhabit colonial and dependent countries."

The New Times also publishes three articles criticising the United States. One accuses America of not keeping its promises to the Philippines; a second says persecution of American Negroes is continuing, and the third assails Washington's policy regarding the Japanese Mikado.

That's a Russian viewpoint. And the western Allies on their side regard with grave doubts Moscow's tremendous expansion of influence across Europe, into the Mediterranean, into the Middle East and into the Far East.

What motives are behind Russia's direct actionist maneuvers, and behind Britain's moves, and behind Uncle Sam's? Until each one of the Big Three knows whether the other two are holding something behind their backs there can be no progress towards peace.

The Big Three chiefs served the world magnificently in the crisis of war. The Big Three chiefs of today could render an even greater service to mankind.

MARION CIRCUS FANS WILL HAVE their first chance to engage in their favorite summer pastime Tuesday, April 23, when Mill's Brothers show comes here for a one-day stand at the Drake lot on East Fairground street.

Shown above are two of the featured performers. One of the clowns, holding his favorite goose, compares eggs with LaCelesta whose act calls for her to be carried around the hippodrome track with her head in the mouth of one of the circus elephants.

In the way of animal acts the circus also boasts Big Berma, said to be the largest performing elephant in the world; the Mills Bros. Liberty Horses and the military pony drill.

Performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m.

Ohio's Enoch Arden Case Ends in Court

Special to The Star

LONG BEACH, Calif., April 17—The marital entanglement of Mrs. Helen Goad, the former Portsmouth, O., girl who remarried after her bomber pilot husband was reported dead, was unraveled today through the annulment of her second marriage.

Judge Leslie Still, in dissolving the marriage of the former Helen Zuhras and Ens. Robert A. MacDowell yesterday, decreed Lt. Harold A. Goad, 27, to be her legal husband.

Goad was shot down over Japheld Burma and the war department informed his wife that he was presumed dead. Six months later she married Ens. MacDowell of Saugerties, N. Y.

Although he spent 18 months of near starvation in a Jap prison camp, Goad survived and upon his release communicated with his wife. An exchange of cablegrams and letters prompted her to seek an annulment from MacDowell, whom she married Dec. 16, 1944.

DALE'S RESTAURANT IN PROSPECT LOOTED

More Than $100 Taken from Cash Register.

More than $100 in cash was believed taken from Dale's restaurant in Prospect last night when the building was ransacked, according to a report from Ed Fetter, Prospect marshal.

Mr. Fetter said intruders entered the building by breaking and crawling through a small window in the women's rest room. The cash register was looted and money taken from seven or eight other places where it had been hidden, the marshal said. Exact amount taken has not yet been determined, although it is believed to be more than $100. Merchandise in the building was not molested, according to reports. The break-in was discovered early this morning by one of the restaurant employes.

The Marion county sheriff's office was investigating the break-in today.

Crawford County Road Work on State List

Two counties neighboring Marion will be included in a $784,000, 486 road resurfacing program which will extend into 36 Ohio counties, according to an announcement by State Highway Director Perry T. Ford.

The road resurfacing program in Crawford county will include the following state highways: 10.1 miles of state route 262 in Tod and Texas townships; 8.74 miles of state route 103 in Texas, Lykens and Chatfield townships; Richland county, 5.07 miles of state route 96 in Jackson and Franklin townships; 4.29 miles of state route 98 in Plymouth township. Total estimated cost of the four proposals is $35,115.22.

In Seneca county 7.51 miles of state route 4 in Venice, Reed and Thompson townships will be resurfaced. The highway is known locally as the Columbus-Sandusky road, Director Ford said.

Bids for the projects will be opened by the state highway department May 7 at 10 a. m., Dayton time.

Feed Your Dog as Many Famous Breeders Do

Mrs. Florence White, noted dog breeder of South Weymouth, Mass. and Secretary, Bulldog Club of New England, writes: "GRO-PUP is popular with my prize-winning English bulldogs. I build my daily feeding pattern on GRO-PUP and their 'alive' expression and excellent coats show how well it's working."
MOST breeders and veterinarians use and recommend a foundation diet of good dry dog food fed with scrap meat, including fat. So many feed Kellogg's GRO-PUP because it provides all the vitamins and minerals dogs are known to need for growth and vigor.
Kellogg's GRO-PUP is thrifty. And dogs love its hearty, meaty flavor.

Ye Olde Apple

IT IS our wish that the old soupbone be limber, the old legs springy and the infielders full of the old pepper. May the starters postpone their long trip to the showers until the shadows creep over the right-field foul line and all the men in olde have the vision of hawks.

Let there be no rain checks, no complaints about the rabbit ball and no sign spikes going into record. Grant that the murderers have one of their good days and that the outfielders take off at the crack of the bat—in the right direction. And by all means, grant that ye olde apple be chunked for many a four-baser.

May the bleacherites broil slowly in the April sun and the toil in the bull-pen be not too arduous. Let there be no accidentally-passed batters and no funny business with aptoails, emery cloth, or tobacco juice. What the people want, with the war over and 'normalcy' restored is some of the same, in double helpings.

Perhaps big league baseball can create the illusion that so far has eluded the search for it in other fields. When the umpires call, "Play ball!" everything is all right, evidence to the contrary notwithstanding. Play ball! Not a bad idea. More of us should try it.

Arguing the Technicalities

THE rosy light turned on Iran's understanding with Russia in a statement by Prince Mozaffar Firouz, propaganda director for the government in Teheran, seems to leave the United Nations security council and Hussein Ala, Iranian ambassador to the United States, holding a bagful of technicalities.

The effect of the statement is to embarrass all parties to the original controversy by telling them that they now are talking about a disagreement that no longer exists. The Iranian government says it has confidence in the pledge of the Russian government to withdraw its troops by May 6 and there is, therefore, nothing further to talk about.

This apparently is a diplomatic triumph for Soviet diplomacy. But it is a rebuff to the United Nations, which had committed itself, without Russia's consent, to a test of the security council's power to handle what had seemed to be a bona fide case in its jurisdiction. Russia first denied the council's jurisdiction, then liquidated the case when the council over-rode the objection.

On the credit side, however, is the equally important fact that the case has been settled, after a fashion. Russian troops, which were to have left by March 2, now will leave May 6, according to Moscow's pledge to Iran. But they will leave.

The Lot of a Neutral

THE war has not been over long enough to mellow Allied feelings about Franco's Spain. Denials of guilt and protestations of good faith in the observance of neutrality fall on ground made sterile by the flames of battle.

The fact is, as it usually is when neutrality is the question, that Spain never was neutral as a government. Franco was sympathetic with Germany and Italy, without whose help he could not have established his dictatorship. He was sympathetic with them because he was opposed to Russia, to whom he was openly hostile. During the war, Spain officially was playing a semblance of neutrality in relations with Great Britain and the United States against a fact of hostility in relations with Russia, their ally.

Had Spain been completely neutral, it would have incurred the ill will of all governments actively engaged in the war; each had something to gain or lose in the decisions of the Spanish government. Neutrality itself, which seems in peace to be the ultimate manifestation of good will, becomes in war a manifestation of resistance. Spain was not neutral. It was not even noncombatant; it sent troops to fight with Germany against Russia. For its government to protest innocence and bring countercharges now is to advertise the duplicity that has become the trademark of the Franco regime.

Political Masterpiece

HAVING passed the hot potato of selective service to the senate, which does not have to stand for election en masse this year, the house can take the dubious credit for a minor political masterpiece—continuation of the draft, with a five-month holiday for inductions.

Theoretically, the possibility that inductions will be resumed in October will stimulate enlistments of men whose induction is deferred. Practically, however, the effect will be the opposite. Voluntary enlistments bear a close relation to imminent inductions. Many potential volunteers become actual volunteers in ratio to the nearness of their induction date.

If the senate should confirm the house's evasion of the issue, removing incentive to volunteer by removing one of the main reasons, the selective service holiday this summer might turn into a temporary vacation from national responsibility for carrying out this government's commitments.

News Behind the News

By PAUL MALLON

Senate Labor Committee Bides Its Time.

WASHINGTON, April 16—The amounts of the ad interim report of a labor investigation had sounded like the senate labor committee had given up at last. This old guard of the CIO on the committee, which never before had let through a bill demanded by anti-labor groups, had surrendered to Mr. Truman, at least to the extent of doing something about strikes. The senatorial clique of lethal sympathizers who recently wished to give the Democratic party of all opposition to Truman except their own had decided to purge themselves of opposition in this case. Years?

The news given out was sufficiently sparse to encourage such a belief — among the unwary. The published reports I saw tended to weaken, by the committee said nothing even about a vote in the committee, but left the idea only three awful Republicans were against what was proposed—and what was proposed was a five man board to mediate these disputes, and stop them, yes sir.

Behind the sparse news was more news than two columns could carry. But it was all of the same character as the dominant concealed fact, namely:

How It Worked

They worked it this way. When the Case bill which had been passed by the house came over to the senate proposing Mr. Truman's factfinding plan with a couple of added blue-pencils, the labor committee folded it aside and quietly sat on it. No until all the strikes were over, did they act—that is all the big CIO strikes except Westinghouse. But not the coal strike of John Lewis whom they oppose. The auto strike in which the unions promised they wanted no wage increase which would increase prices was over, but not the auto price increases which resulted, one having been already imposed on the public a few weeks ago and another being currently promised in the cards.

The committee outsmarted the public. The pressure from the people for action by the government against the strike campaign died down. Right at that moment three weeks ago, the committee acted in secret, approving this new mediation bill. Then it waited three weeks more—to be certain, to take no chances.

It was evident in the news accounts I saw that the bill had been stripped not only to the bone, but beneath. One finger was left of the original proposition, a finger without a body, or even nerve direction. It was the proposition to institute a mediation board, without a cooling off period for strikes (let us have them as in the past,) without arbitration, without anything. The government, of course, already has a mediation service. It proposed what is already being done.

But even this one finger proposition, the text of the committee report discloses was opposed by the dominating committee clique, namely the chairman Senator Murray, Pepper, Guffey, Hill, Chavez and Thomas.

How We Take Chances!

Boy, do we take chances in the CIO and our senate labor committee! We wait until the public has forgotten everything, we hope, including the promise of no price increases for our wage increases—then wait three weeks longer—then emasculate the President's mild factfinding plan (so mild the rail brotherhoods have lived and prospered into the strongest of unions under a similar arrangement providing cooling off periods) then what do we do, in our daring in the public behalf? Give in to our party leader and bravely give him what he says is necessary? Nope. We sign a supplemental report to the majority report on our one-fingered bill opposing even this one-finger we have given him.

But this sounds like something less than bright for us you may say? We oppose the only thing pertinent we have left in the bill. How can we pretend to such a position? We have thought of that, I may tell you. Brightly enough we have added to the bill an entirely different proposition, another bill passed by the house in connection with another matter. We added the Hobbs bill, and on that, apparently, we firmly stand.

Now the Hobbs bill, as we amended it to suit our purpose, prohibits use of "extortion" and "racketeering" by unions in the interference with transportation of perishable agriculture commodities. Not in connection with other products, mind you. Extortion is all right on those. We still allow extortion and racketeering by unions, but not by the public, in connection, presumably, on nonperishable farm products, on manufactured products, on any kind of products or human beings—but not on things like lettuce. They spoil.

Fraternal or Nocturnal?

A revival of the Ku Klux Klan is reported in several localities in the South.

As if the shortage of bedsheets wasn't already bad enough.

The new incorporation papers list the Klan as a "fraternal" organization. Those boys believe in brotherhood with the accent on the hood.

There is as yet unsubstantiated report, incidentally, that the Klan is faced with new competition, the Kountenpane Kommandos.

Personally, I'm not surprised at the reappearance of these undercover outfits. I've been more or less expecting them ever since the easing of the excess profits tax.

Numerous qualifications are laid down for admission to such. But, primarily, one needs a grandge and the initiation fee.

It's downright phenomenal how a new menace always comes along just about the same time as a new crop of suckers.

Republicans' Big Four Aims

Ohioan Clarence Brown One of Major Quartet.

By JACK STINNETT
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON, April 17—Big Four of the Republican drive to capture the house of representatives in the November elections are Reps. Joe Martin Jr. (Mass.); B. (for Brazilla) Carroll Reece, Tenn., new chairman of the G.O.P. National Committee; Clarence J. Brown, Ohio, executive committee chairman; and Charles A. Halleck, Ind., chairman of the Republican congressional committee.

Martin is minority floor leader. For the purpose of this article it is necessary to say only that in the party and out it is considered certain that he will be speaker of the house should the Republicans gain the necessary 27 seats next fall to give them the 219 majority.

The others are the Three Musketeers of the Republican Old Guard in the house. They are close friends, politically and socially.

Halleck a Veteran

Rep. Halleck is a veteran of house political leadership. When Rep. J. William Ditter, Pa., died in December, 1943, Halleck was handed the congressional campaign committee chairmanship without much argument.

Both observers and party leaders say that he could have had the Republican National Committee chairmanship if he had wanted it. Both Brown and Reece would have backed him for that post. He didn't want it.

Many of the same observers and national committee members say Brown could have won the national chairmanship if he had made a run for it. Halleck and Reece would have backed him. He refused to run. Thus, the choice fell to Reece, and Brown and Halleck were behind him from start to finish.

The reasons for Halleck's and Brown's turning it down were the same:

1. Both are politically ambitious and feel that their aims will best be served by whittling away in the house. The Republican national committee wanted a full-time man in the chairmanship, and neither Halleck nor Brown felt the sacrifice of his house seat advisable at this time.

2. Both men are pretty thoroughly convinced that the house is going Republican next November. If it does and stays that way for some years, both may have a shot at the coveted speakership.

CLARENCE J. BROWN

Ohioan Who Is One of G.O.P. "Big Four," Many Say He Could Have Had National Chairmanship.

All in Agreement

The three musketeers of Republican strategy to capture control of the house of representatives in the November elections are unanimous on several points:

(1) Opposition to the New Deal and so-called liberal legislation; (2) Pre-war objection to our involvement in World War II, (3) A "conservative" attitude toward government controls of business; and (4) A leaning toward the Taft-Bricker leadership of the party, as opposed to such Republicans as Harold E. Stassen and Sens. Joseph Ball (Minn.) and Wayne Morse (Ore.).

Here are thumbnail sketches of the three. You will get much better acquainted with them before the November elections roll around.

Rep. Brazilla Carroll Reece of Johnson City, Tenn., lead, quiet, 56, a 25-year veteran of the house of representatives, having been beaten only once in 13 campaigns. He's a banker and economist, lawyer, farmer and clubman. He married Louise Goff, daughter and granddaughter of U. S. senators from West Virginia.

Not To Be Jostled

Reece talks little, but as his wife says, no man who won all those medals in World War I (D.S.C., D.S.M., Croix de Guerre with palm and Purple Heart) should be pushed too far unless you want to invite a storm.

Although he denies any strict affiliation within the party, he has been tagged as a Taft man." It certainly was the "Old Guard," led by Sen. Robert A. Taft, who made Reece chairman of the Republican national committee.

Clarence J. Brown of Blanchester, O.—One of his G.O.P. colleagues has described him as "105 per cent politician." It wasn't meant in a derogatory sense. Huge bulking Brown looks the part.

Now on his eighth year in the house, Brown probably could have won the Republican national committee chairmanship. It would have meant resigning from his job. Convinced that the house will be Republican next year, Brown placed his political chips on that side of the board.

Brown is 53, come July 14. He's publisher of a string of small newspapers, owner of a big printing establishment, is also a lawyer and farmer. In the newly created job of chairman of the national G.O.P. executive committee, his plans for reviving that moribund group assures him a prominent spot in the battle to recapture control of the house.

Comparative Youngster

Charles A. Halleck, the smooth, youngish (he's 45, but looks less) chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee is, at this writing, No. 2 man in the house Republican post-war set-up. No. 1 is Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. of North Attleboro, Mass., minority leader in the house and earmarked for the speakership if and when the G.O.P. takes over.

Hoosier Halleck, from Rensselaer, is a born and bred Indianian. He's a Phi Beta Kappa from Indiana university, is a lawyer, the father of twins and has been serving in the house since January, 1935.

Halleck wishes the Republican party would openly adopt the handle 'conservative' but would like to redefine the term to mean the conservation of the traditional American way of life and doing business.

"WHITE MAN'S BURDEN"

Food Cut No Risks for Us

In Fact, We're Likely To Live Longer, Says Fishbein.

THE food conservation program proposed recently by President Truman as a step toward feeding starving Europe, "cannot possibly harm the average American citizen," says Morris Fishbein, M. D., in the May issue of Hygeia, health magazine of the American Medical Association. "Indeed it is likely to help him." Editor Fishbein states, "since overweight after middle life is recognized as one of the important causes of abbreviated longevity."

Famine threatens 500,000,000 people for the war-exhausted human labor and natural calamities like drought destroyed many acres of crops. All over the world except perhaps in the United States, the vast majority of the people are trying to live on amounts of food so small in energy value as to make work difficult, so limited in the essential food substances as to make the occurrence of deficiency diseases likely.

In this emergency the American people have been asked to help particularly by cutting down on their own consumption of essential food substances. We are among the greatest consumers of sugar in the world. Whereas other nations consume from 15 to 50 pounds of sugar per person per year, the average for the United States is between 90 and 100 pounds of sugar per person per year. Our consumption of fruits, meats, cereals, eggs, milk and other important foods is far above the amounts eaten in other nations.

Chiefly needed by these people are wheat and fats. For that reason President Truman's famine emergency committee has requested Americans to cut down their consumption of wheat products voluntarily by 40 per cent. This cannot possibly harm the average American citizen. Indeed it is likely to help him, since overweight after middle life is recognized as one of the important causes of abbreviated longevity.

Here are some practical suggestions for diminishing the consumption of wheat.

When you scramble eggs or prepare lamb chops there is no need to put two little triangles of toast on each side or under them.

A big basket of rolls and bread is an invitation to keep buttering and eating. Many an American eats during every pause in service, probably as a relief for nerve strain.

Build the sandwich with one piece of bread on the bottom and with the meat or other filling on the top. That goes for pies too.

Suggestions for Breakfast

For breakfast try corn and buckwheat cakes unless you are sensitive to that flour. There are not so many people sensitive to corn and buckwheat as to diminish seriously the consumption of wheat cakes. Oatmeal, corn and buckwheat, also rice, are welcome alternates for wheat products.

The substitution of fruits and other desserts for pastries and cakes will help the wheat supply. Cut three-layer cakes to two, and get rid of four-layer cakes altogether.

There are many ways to reduce the amount of fats and oils needed by our own people. We proved during the war that bread could go down just as easily with a little jam as with a thick cover of butter.

Actually broiled or boiled fish is better eating than fried fish—and that goes for steak too.

Just a little thought can save an awful lot of bread and butter and help to add variety to the meals of which you may have become a little tired. The foods that you do not eat will save many thousands of lives throughout the world.

The Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

America Gets a Lift in Morale

THE OPA has taken price controls off mocks, fly swatters, decorative sink pocket knives and thermometers among things. This means a terrific boost to American morale.

• • •

The news that hammocks and fly swatters now within the reach of all is alone enough to lift a weary feeling from the hearts of people. These two articles open the way to comfort, relaxation and peace of mind unknown since Pearl Harbor.

• • •

Here is a nation nervous, morose and depressive, under the harrassements and confusion of reconversion with all its chaos and derailments—and suddenly it finds it can get hammocks and fly swatters. The lift is tremendous.

• • •

And when you throw in a decorative pocket knife and a whittling knife, boy, you are over the hump.

• • •

Who wants to write letters to the newspapers, sign protests to Congress, solidify the lawmakers' squawks over Administration policies and yell about the general situation when you can fall into a hammock, do a little whittling or take a sock at flies, with the prewar equipment?

• • •

This release of hammocks, fly swatters and whittling knives may become the smartest move the Truman Administration has made so far. It may prove that the tide against the Democrats has not only been checked but turned the other way.

• • •

Nothing can save the day for the Republicans now unless the hammocks turns out to be a dud and the fly crop for 1946 is unusually scant.

• • •

Millions of Americans are forever emphasizing the part axes, picks, shovels, buffalo guns, surveyors' implements, pack mules and covered wagons have played in building the nation, but the part played by hammocks, fly swatters and whittling knives has been overlooked.

• • •

Nearly all epic performances are the result of someone's dream. And the great dreamers have been hammock and fly swatters boys.

• • •

OPA freed the hammocks only ten days ago and already are kicking and squawking that made us unhappy ever since the end of the war has decreased 54 per cent.

• • •

The years at the spring,
And day's at the morn;
Morning's at seven;
The hillside's dew-pearled:
The hammock's the thing;
The swatter's reborn;
God's in his Heaven—
All's right with the world.

I remember going bashfully to the spring-wagon when she climbed in with others finally to go home. And as the horses jogged away and the spring-wagon faded into the night, I stood there watching her out of sight. Next every Sunday I hired a horse and buggy and went to see her; life was lovely as the rich on a cigar box."

Tin Lizzie

By TRUMAN TWILL

As all motor moguls would know if they took time from admiring the chromium trim to read this column, what the plain people want is a automobile they can afford. One rattletrap in the driveway is worth 10 beauties in the showroom.

If the moguls mean it when they say they will come out with something in 1947 within reach of the little man who's having a weary climb, they're headed in the right direction. That is, if they leave the deluxe models and gas hogs for the market operators, skilled workmen and other malefactors of great wealth.

It's no gamble, because all the moguls have to do is follow in the fast disappearing tracks of Tin Lizzie, the utility chug-wagon that put a filling station at every crossroads. Up to her time automobiles were expensive toys, flossed up to be the eye of the wealthy. But Henry Ford saw, as his grandson and others now are seeing, that the public wanted something to ride in there and back, nuts to luxury. He was right. So what happened?

So competition got stiff and the boys added a whingus here and a gadget there, stretched out the length and hung on weight. They put in self-starters, battery, tony upholstering and stuck on parking lights, cigar lighters, ash trays, carpets on the floor, ventilating systems, and gingerbread. They were all right for deflation because they helped in taking off the price, but this is inflation. Automobiles are costing way over a thousand bucks a copy again.

This is where Henry Ford came in a generation ago, looked over the sichuation and turned out a go-devil at popular prices. Any customer could have any color as long as it was black. If he wanted anything but seats over the wheel and a box on wheels, they were extras. What Henry had to sell was transportation, not chromium. His great discovery was not how to make the dadblasted things but how to sell them.

If the motor moguls go back to selling transportation, shooting for the business of the millions of Little people who can't keep up with the "standardized" prices, the United States will enter a new era. We can almost see them now. Tin Lizzies of yesterday, gaunt, black, but reliable. They made jokes about them and the taunts at the pleased little people who scuttered about in them. It was all right, but when everybody got screaming there sat Henry Ford with the cash and the knowledge he had revolutionized transportation. Things are different now, of course, though the more things are different the more they are the same.

Too Old Now

BOSTON—From the cradle to old age, a new range covered by discrimination in the current housing shortage, according to reports.

Whereas children and pets have already been on the "not wanted" list, new restrictions proposed by landlords are now aimed at persons over 65 years of age. An apartment hotel in Boston has notified—with regrets—that no one beyond that age will be considered for tenancy.

We're on our way to the Grand Opening

Saturday April 20th

Yes Sir-ee, we're all spruced up and waiting to welcome you to the Grand Opening of what we believe is one of the most modern Hardware and Appliance Stores in Marion County. And it is not small either—a fine new building boasting 3,000 square feet floor area — brim full of many of those hard to get items such as electrical appliances, alarm clocks, carpenter and farm tools and many other household articles.

Tell your neighbors — make up a party — and come any time Saturday prepared to spend a couple hours inspecting our Lumber Yard, Mill and New Store. Old friends will be surprised and new ones delighted — and who doesn't like to participate in Special Opening Day Awards?

We're just a little proud of our little enterprise. For after a very modest start in 1942 when we conducted a small Lumber, Building Supply and Coal business, we soon joined in the War Effort and developed into the largest manufacturer of Government crates in the County.

At the close of the War we immediately modernized our Mill and then, recognizing a definite need in the community for a modern, up to the minute Hardware and Electrical Appliance Store, plans were laid for our New Building.

Saturday will see the fulfillment of our latest dream and we'll be mighty happy to have you join us in our Celebration.
